CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer
HAN Weibing

On behalf of the board (the “Board”) of directors (the “Directors”) of Feishang Anthracite Resources Limited (“Feishang Anthracite” or the “Company”), I present the results of the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively the “Group”) for the year ended 31 December 2020 to the shareholders of the Company (the “Shareholders”).

REVIEW

During 2020, the world was hit hard by the global outbreak of the novel coronavirus (“COVID-19”) amidst a series of other existing or emerging tensions and challenges. The pandemic and the efforts to contain it have caused significant economic and financial disruptions around the world, including disruptions to industrial production and global logistical and supply chains, and extreme volatility in the global financial markets. While other countries were yet to recover from the pandemic, China, under clear policy guidance and highly-coordinated efforts nationwide, was the first country in the world to bring COVID-19 under control, and economic activities steadily recovered. The Chinese government also pursued a proactive fiscal policy and a prudent monetary policy to mitigate the risk of economic contraction. As a result, in 2020, China became the only major economy in the world to achieve positive economic growth, with a year-on-year gross domestic product (“GDP”) growth rate of 2.3%.

The outbreak of COVID-19 and its related economic consequences were clearly reflected in the coal industry in the first half of 2020, but the effects faded away in the second half. The price of coal went through a deep V-shape in the first half of the year and rose to a relatively high level in the second half. Since the outbreak of COVID-19 in late January, the Chinese government imposed strict control policies to contain its spread, which inevitably had material impacts on the economy. Coal supply was temporarily restricted. In order to secure crucial energy supply during the pandemic, the coal industry was among the first to resume production, whereas downstream industries were yet to recover from large-scale quarantines. Coal import also increased, which led to increase in supply. This then resulted in a serious mismatch between supply and demand, leading to a continuous drop in the price of coal until late April. The price of coal dropped below CNY500 per ton for the first time since 2017. Since May, the coal industry was encouraged to restrict output in order to restore balance to the market and protect coal price. The government also imposed strict restrictions on coal import. Meanwhile, economic activities steadily recovered, with most downstream industries resuming operations, and this boosted electricity consumption, investment and coal demand. The price of coal soon rebounded to pre-COVID-19 levels. Since July, coal demand and coal price slightly weakened due to strong competition from hydropower generation. In the fourth quarter of the year, due to winter peak season and strict import restrictions and safety supervision, the price of coal exhibited a strong trend and exceeded the corresponding prior-year period, but the overall average price of coal in 2020 was still lower than that in the prior year. In 2020, the average price of thermal coal in ports was approximately CNY571 per ton, representing a year-on-year decline of approximately 2.7%. Coal industry earnings continued to follow a steady declining trend.

During 2020, production capacity in the coal industry continued to increasingly concentrate in the northern and north-western part of China. High-quality products from northern China joined the local market competition in Guizhou province where the Group's operations situated, providing local customers with increasingly diversified choices. During the year, the Group recorded a decrease in its gross profit. Apart from the impact of intensified market competition and volatile demand and prices in the coal market caused by the outbreak of COVID-19, this decrease in gross profit was mainly attributable to a temporary decline in the quantity and quality of the Group's coal products due to geological complexities of current mining faces. The Group's operations were also disrupted by the pandemic, which resulted in under-capacity operation and a decrease in the Group's production output and sales volume in 2020, especially in the first half of 2020. Meanwhile, in 2020, the Group incurred increased financial burden due to a substantial increase in interest-bearing loans and an impairment of mining rights and mining assets, which further undermined the Group's profitability. Facing such intensifying competition and difficult operating conditions, the Group strictly adhered to its business strategy by focusing on coal quality management and capacity expansion, optimising product mix and marketing strategy, promoting refined management and cost control, and enhancing production mechanisation and intelligence and production safety management.

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

OUTLOOK

Following the completion of massive overall capacity reduction in the coal industry, the focus of supply-side reform since 2020 has shifted to further encouraging steady and orderly release of high-quality production capacity to ensure energy security, consolidate the achievements of supply-side reform, and improve the safety level of coal mines. Nevertheless, investment in fixed assets in the coal industry has been weak, so the release of newly constructed production capacity has notably slowed down. Also, under tight environmental policies and safety supervision, more backward production facilities will be eliminated. The expansion of coal supply in the future should be mild and steady. Under the policy guidance to further promote mergers and restructurings of coal enterprises, coal industry concentration is expected to increase further. One obvious achievement of the supply-side reform in the coal industry is a marked increase in concentration and elasticity of supply, which will facilitate production management and control. The result is higher quality and more reliable domestic supply. Coal import is not expected to increase under strict import regulations. The above is in line with China's pursuit of economic self-reliance by promoting the domestic economic circulation model in the midst of the pandemic.

On the demand side, as COVID-19 in China has generally been kept under control, economic activities in China have rapidly recovered. The targeted and highly supportive fiscal and monetary stabilising policies implemented by the Chinese government are expected to further boost China's GDP growth by building a strong domestic market and supporting the domestic and international "dual circulation" strategy, which will lend steady support to overall electricity consumption as well as coal demand. Investment in fixed assets, real estate and infrastructure construction is expected to maintain solid growth, which will then support coal demand from downstream industries including the production of iron and steel and building materials. The chemical industry will recover following the pickup in international oil price, further boosting coal demand. The average price of coal in the near future is expected to slightly increase. Overall, supply and demand relationship in the coal market is expected to remain healthy in the future, and the fluctuations of coal price will most likely be narrowed and remain within a reasonable range. However, the extent to which the evolving COVID-19 pandemic will impact the global economy and the coal industry is highly uncertain. Any widespread resurgence of COVID-19 in China and around the world could prolong the deterioration in economic conditions, as control policies such as large-scale quarantines and travel restrictions, if escalate, could cause significant disruptions to industrial production and logistical and supply chains. The above could cause further delays in and even suspensions of production and further declines in market demand and prices, which will negatively impact the Group's results of operations.

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

In the future, the degree of coal industry concentration is expected to further increase, giving large coal enterprises more bargaining power. Market competition in Guizhou province, especially among high-quality products, will further intensify. Nevertheless, the economic development in south-western China is relatively fast, and Guizhou province is an important base of China's west-to-east electricity transmission project and also a target province of China's transportation infrastructure development strategy, so coal demand in Guizhou province should be well supported in the long term. In order to succeed in future competition, the Group intends to actively focus on coal quality management and product mix adjustment to improve the competitiveness and average selling price of its coal products. The Group will also continue to expand production output in pursuit of economies of scale and opportunities for better product diversification. Meanwhile, the Group will, during the current period of a weak market and temporary deterioration in coal quality caused by geological complexities of current mining faces, continue to make strategic preparations for concentrated mining of high-quality coal in the coming years, in order to place itself in an advantageous position for competing in the high-quality coal market in the future. The Group is committed to its business strategy through vigorously (i) promoting the expansion of production capacity, coal washing facilities and transportation system; (ii) realising comprehensive mining mechanisation and intelligent production management; (iii) strengthening production safety management and environmental protection efforts and, most importantly; (iv) supplying customers with diversified and customised coal products to retain high-quality customers and penetrate the surrounding coal market.

For a considerable period of time, the status of coal as the primary source of energy in China has remained unchanged. It is widely used in thermal power generation, iron and steel production, building materials production, and the chemical industry. Clean energy is currently developing fast and taking up a bigger proportion of overall power generation, but there are limits to this growth due to reliability, economic efficiency and availability of economically viable resources. However, China's ambitious target to achieve carbon neutrality by 2060 is expected to gradually reduce coal consumption and production in the long term, but it calls for an urgent need for breakthroughs in climate-friendly technologies, large-scale green investments, and the implementation of national climate policies and financial supports. Therefore the Company is cautiously positive about the coal industry in the middle to long term. The Company will also consider other potential business projects that can provide its shareholders with promising returns and benefit the Group as a whole when suitable opportunities arise.

APPRECIATION

On behalf of the Board, I would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to the staff and management team of the Group for their hard work and dedication during the year. I would also like to express my sincere gratitude to the Shareholders for their continuous support.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

BUSINESS REVIEW

During 2020, the coal market was highly volatile due to impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic. The price of coal dropped sharply until late April before a V-shape rebound occurred in May. This was mainly because the recovery of coal demand lagged behind coal supply, which led to temporary excess supply, but demand gradually returned in May as the Chinese economy recovered from the pandemic. The price of coal dropped slightly from July, as demand for coal weakened due to strong competition from hydropower generation. As the winter peak season approached in September, the price of coal rose and soon exceeded the price level in the corresponding period in the prior year. The average price of coal in the second half of 2020 was relatively high compared to the first half, but the overall average price in 2020 was still lower compared to the prior year.

The relatively high market price of coal in the second half of the year contributed to a slight increase in the average selling price of the Group's coal products in 2020 compared to the prior year. Due to disruptions and production delays caused by the pandemic in the first half of 2020, the Group produced and sold more of its coal products in the second half of the year, but the average selling price of the Group's coal products was still adversely affected by the temporary deterioration in coal quality as a result of geological complexities of current mining faces as well as intensified competition from both expanded and upgraded local producers and high-quality products from northern China. The Group's overall production output and sales volume for the whole year of 2020 decreased compared to the prior year. All of the above resulted in a decrease in the Group's gross profit for the year ended 31 December 2020 as compared to the prior year.

In 2020, the Group also incurred an increase in financial costs due to a substantial increase in interest-bearing loans of the Group. In addition, the Group incurred an impairment of mining rights and mining assets, including the impairment of the relevant mining assets resulting from the mining area adjustment of Liujiaba Coal Mine as disclosed in the Business Update Announcement of the Company dated 8 December 2020 and the higher production cost. The above further undermined the Group's profitability for the year ended 31 December 2020.

The Group's operations were impacted by the COVID-19 outbreak and governmental control measures imposed to contain its spread because the movement of its employees was restricted and which led to delays in production and under-capacity operation in the first half of 2020. Demand for coal was similarly negatively impacted by COVID-19 as a result of the sharp decrease in manufacturing and other activity due to the widespread closure of businesses in China and worldwide, with a commensurate impact on the price of coal. In order to actively respond to the government's policy guidance of securing crucial energy supply during the pandemic, the Group formulated a detailed resumption of production and COVID-19 prevention and control work plan. The work plan set out in details how to safely prepare for quick resumption of production, including recording the travel history and monitoring the temperature and health of returning employees, preparing sufficient epidemic prevention supplies and appropriate site for quarantine, carrying out regular disinfection and sterilization in office, production and living areas, conducting safety inspection of all surface and underground facilities and systems, and carrying out potential hazard prevention and control. The Group strictly implemented the work plan, and resumed operations satisfactorily after the outbreak of COVID-19 in the first half of 2020.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Due to frequent coal mine safety incidents outside as well as within Guizhou province where the Group's operations situated, safety policies and supervision in 2020 became increasingly tight nation-wide. The Group has as usual remained highly vigilant on mine safety and has taken various precautions to ensure production safety at its coal mines. That included strengthening the safety management system by formulating and updating various production safety policies and gas control policies, further increasing the frequency of safety inspections, employing professional gas control teams, upgrading relevant production facilities, and enhancing safety-related trainings.

The Group, having regard to the importance of product quality in creating sustainable advantage in future competition, has continued to enhance production capacity and coal quality management. In May and October 2020, two newly constructed large coal washing plants each with annual production capacity of 0.6 million tonnes were completed, and this greatly improved the Group's coal washing capacity and ability to control product quality and optimise product mix. Quality control and safety management is core to production management and is embraced throughout the entire production process. With these measures in place, the Group believes that when the geological conditions improve, it will be able to better utilize its production capacity resulting in improved product quality. The high sieving systems and coal washing plants will allow the Group to perform coal screening, coal washing and efficient coal blending and supply customers with customised coal products of controllable quality. The Group will continue to strengthen the brand name of Feishang Anthracite and retain and further penetrate the high-end market.

Facing the difficult operating environment caused by the pandemic, the Group continued to explore and optimise coal mine design and actively apply new technologies and equipment in mine construction to improve operational efficiency, enhance production safety and intelligence, and reduce capital commitment and production cost. The Group made especial effort in actively promoting refined management, data management and cost control to ensure that all investments and expenses were appropriate and just in time, reusable materials were recycled, and all mining, production and marketing activities were cost-effective.

As a result of the above internal and external complications, the Group recorded consolidated loss attributable to owners of the parent from continuing operations of approximately CNY345.9 million for the year ended 31 December 2020, representing an increase of approximately 256.4% from approximately CNY97.1 million in the prior year.

Snapshot of major developments of the Group throughout the year:

- In May 2020, the construction of a coal washing plant with annual production capacity of 0.6 million tonnes at Yongsheng Coal Mine was completed.
- In October 2020, the construction of a coal washing plant with annual production capacity of 0.6 million tonnes at Dayun Coal Mine was completed.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Compliance

The Group and its activities are subject to requirements under various laws. These include, among others, the laws of the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") relating to the coal industry, environmental protection, safety production, mining resource consolidation, taxation, and labour and the applicable rules, regulations, guidelines, notices and policies issued or promulgated under or in connection with these statutes. On the listed company level, the Group is also subject to the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange") (the "Listing Rules"), the Codes on Takeovers and Mergers and Share Buy-backs, the Companies Ordinance (Chapter 622 of the Laws of Hong Kong), the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Chapter 571 of the Laws of Hong Kong) and/or the laws, rules and regulations of the jurisdictions where the Group companies are incorporated. The Company seeks to ensure compliance with these requirements through various measures such as internal controls, trainings and oversight of various business units at different levels of the Group. The Group highly values the importance of ensuring compliance with applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

During the year, as far as the Company is aware, there was no material breach of and/or non-compliance with applicable laws and regulations by the Group that had a significant impact on the business and operations of the Group.

Customer and Supplier Relationship

In 2019 and 2020, sales to the Group's largest customer accounted for approximately 44.6% and 37.4% of the Group's total sales, respectively and sales to the Group's five largest customers accounted for approximately 66.2% and 70.2% of the Group's total sales, respectively.

The major suppliers for the Group's mining operations include third party contractors, suppliers of machinery and equipment and suppliers of ancillary materials used in the mining operations. In 2019 and 2020, purchases from the largest supplier accounted for approximately 16.2% and 17.1% of the total purchases, respectively, and the total purchases (including those from coal mine construction contractors) from the five largest suppliers accounted for approximately 49.3% and 42.4% of the total purchases, respectively.

None of the Directors, their close associates or any Shareholders, which to the knowledge of the Directors, owned more than 5% of the Company's issued share capital, had an interest in any of the Group's five largest customers and suppliers.

In 2019 and 2020, the Group's top five customers were primarily coal trading companies (for onward sales to cement plants, chemical plants and steel manufacturers) and one or two power plants. The trading terms with the major customers mainly included payment in advance or payment with a credit period of one month. For most of new non-power plant customers, the Group adhered to the term of "advance payment before delivery" to minimise potential credit risk. The Group has established relationship with its major customers for 2 to 4 years. As of the date of this report, the Group has maintained sound business relationships with its major customers.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The payment terms offered by the major suppliers (other than construction related contractors) are usually deposit and cash on delivery followed by a balance payment with credit term up to one year. The Group is not dependent on any single supplier. The Group typically selects suppliers based on various factors, including the quality and safety standard of the products, the ability to reliably meet the product requirements, the credit terms and the after-sales service. The Group has established relationship with its major suppliers for 2 to 7 years.

The average accounts payable turnover days (which is calculated by dividing the arithmetic mean of opening and ending balance of accounts payable (excluding amounts due to construction related contractors) for the year by cost of sales in the year and then multiplying by 360 days) in year 2020 was approximately 171 days, compared to approximately 121 days in 2019. As of the date of this report, the Group did not have any major outstanding disputes in relation to accounts payable and the Group's business relationships with its major suppliers were fair.

Employees and Remuneration Policy

The Group recognises the importance of retaining high calibre and competent staff and continues to provide remuneration packages to employees with reference to prevailing market practices and individual performance. Other benefits, such as medical and retirement benefits, are also provided. In addition, share options may be granted to eligible employees of the Group in accordance with the terms of the approved share option scheme. Employees of the Group are encouraged to attend training and development courses to acquire the right knowledge and skills, and the training expenses are charged to the Group. The emolument policy of the employees of the Group is based on their merit, qualifications and competence. The emoluments of the Directors are determined by taking into account the Group's operating results, individual performance and comparable market statistics. No Director, or any of his associates, and executive is involved in determining his own remuneration.

As at 31 December 2020, the Group had employed 1,218 full time employees (not including 1,337 workers provided by third party labour agencies) for its principal activities. Employees' costs (including Directors' emoluments) from continuing operations amounted to approximately CNY350.2 million (including payment to workers provided by third party labour agencies) for the year ended 31 December 2020 (2019: CNY331.2 million).

The Company has adopted a share option scheme as an incentive to Directors and eligible employees of the Group, details of which are set out in note 32 to the consolidated financial statements and under the paragraph headed "Share Option Scheme of the Company" in the section headed "Report of the Directors" of this report.

As at 31 December 2020 and the date of this report, the Group has maintained good working relationship with its employees. The Group has assembled a management team consisting of key employees with many years of experience in various aspects of the coal mining industry, particularly in coal mine operations management, coal safety production, mining-related engineering and technologies, and coal sales and marketing. All of the key employees have served the Group for over 5 years. The management team and employees have remained stable.

For more information about the employee relations, please refer to the environmental, social and governance ("ESG") report for the year of 2020 to be published by the Company.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Community Relationship

The Group understands the importance of relationships with its surrounding communities. The Group has made community donations in Jinsha county from time to time. The Group did not run into any material disputes or conflicts with its surrounding communities for the year ended 31 December 2020.

Environmental Policy and Measure

The Group believes that the establishment of corporate social responsibility is essential for improving environmental and occupational health and safety, building up a good corporate and social relationship and motivating staff and creating a sustainable return to the Group.

The Group is also committed to environmental protection in its operations and has made financial commitments towards the construction of environmental protection facilities and the establishment of an environmental protection management and monitoring system. In 2020, the cost of compliance with environmental obligations was approximately CNY6.5 million, of which approximately CNY0.4 million was related to the construction of environmental protection facilities. The Group has set aside restricted cash and placed cash with the relevant government authorities for the purpose of future environmental rehabilitation obligations as well as the settlement of asset retirement obligations. As at 31 December 2020, the rehabilitation fund was approximately CNY9.4 million.

For details of the Group's performance on environmental, social and governance, please refer to the Group's separate ESG report for the year of 2020 to be published by the Company.

Safety Measure

The Group is committed to maintaining high safety standards at the coal mines, such as providing a safe working environment at coal mines, conducting regular safety training sessions for employees, including mine managers, methane inspectors, blasters, electricians, coal miners and other workers, to improve their safety awareness and knowledge, and arranging periodic health checks for employees. The Group has implemented a six-part safety system at operating coal mines which consists of the following components: an electronic safety monitoring system; a wireless tracking system that tracks the location of underground workers; emergency exits; emergency water supplies; emergency underground communication equipment; and compressed air stations that provide emergency underground oxygen supplies.

CONTINUING OPERATIONS

Revenue

The Group's revenue from continuing operations decreased by approximately 11.9% from approximately CNY1,149.7 million in 2019 to approximately CNY1,013.1 million in 2020, of which a decrease of approximately 8.3% contributed to COVID-19. The approximately CNY136.6 million decline in revenue in 2020 was mainly caused by the decrease in sales volume of self-produced anthracite coal, notwithstanding a rise in average selling price of self-produced anthracite coal. The sales volume of self-produced anthracite coal decreased from approximately 3.66 million tonnes in 2019 to approximately 2.81 million tonnes in 2020, representing a decline of approximately 23.2%. This decrease in sales volume was mainly due to (i) the outbreak of COVID-19 and governmental control measures imposed to contain it, which in turn led to decline in production output and weak market demand and resulted in a decrease of approximately 11.0% in sales volume; as well as (ii) the geological complexities of current mine faces at Baiping Coal Mine and Yongsheng Coal Mine. The average selling price net of value-added tax of self-produced anthracite coal rose from CNY314.1 per tonne in 2019 to CNY360.8 per tonne in 2020, representing a rise of approximately 14.9%, mainly as a result of the rise in overall price of coal market in the second half of the year, and the increase in sales volume of self-produced anthracite coal in the second half of 2020 as compared to that in the first half of 2020 due to COVID-19.

The Group's revenue from sales of processed coal (including coal screening and/or coal washing and coal blending), amounting to approximately 48.6% and 51.6% of total revenue in 2019 and 2020, respectively, decreased from approximately CNY558.7 million (approximately 1.11 million tonnes sales volume) in 2019 to approximately CNY522.4 million (approximately 1.11 million tonnes sales volume) in 2020. The decrease in revenue from sales of processed coal was due to the drop in average selling price, resulting from the lower coal quality of the current mine face at Yongsheng Coal Mine which provided most of self-produced anthracite coal for processing.

In 2019 and 2020, the Group derived approximately 66.2% and 70.2% of its revenue from anthracite coal sales to its five largest customers, respectively, out of which, one customer and two customers were the power producers in Guizhou province who purchased thermal coal from the Group, respectively. The management of the Group believes that by further expanding the product mix through coal washing and coal blending, the dependency on a limited number of large customers will decrease gradually and the Group's profit margin will increase.

Cost of Sales

The Group's cost of sales from continuing operations decreased by approximately 14.0% from approximately CNY832.6 million in 2019 to approximately CNY715.6 million in 2020. The drop was mainly due to the decrease of approximately 23.2% in sales volume of self-produced anthracite coal, which was partially offset by the increase in labour cost per tonne.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Cost of Sales for Coal Mining

Labour costs in 2020 were approximately CNY223.3 million, representing a decrease of approximately CNY1.6 million, or approximately 0.7%, as compared with approximately CNY224.9 million in 2019. The decrease in labour costs was proportionally lower than the decline in sales volume of self-produced anthracite coal in 2020, because of the rise in labour cost per tonne of coal mining caused by the geological complexities of current mine faces of the Group.

Material, fuel and energy costs in 2020 were approximately CNY120.0 million, a decrease of approximately CNY39.1 million or approximately 24.6%, as compared with approximately CNY159.1 million in 2019. The decreases in material, fuel and energy costs were generally in line with the decrease in sales volume of self-produced anthracite coal.

Depreciation and amortisation in 2020 were approximately CNY242.7 million, representing a decrease of approximately CNY68.6 million, or approximately 22.0%, as compared with approximately CNY311.3 million in 2019. The decrease in depreciation and amortisation in 2020 was caused by the decrease in production volume.

Taxes and levies in 2020 were approximately CNY54.6 million, a decrease of approximately CNY7.1 million or approximately 11.5% as compared with approximately CNY61.7 million in 2019. The decrease in the sales tax and levies, which mainly consisted of ad valorem resource tax, was mainly due to the drop in the revenue in 2020, while the increase in the unit sales tax and levies was mainly due to the rise in the average selling price of anthracite coal.

Cost of Sales for Coal Processing

Coal processing costs, which included coal screening costs and/or coal washing costs and coal blending costs, increased from approximately CNY60.0 million in 2019 to approximately CNY62.8 million in 2020. This was mainly due to the increase in transportation fee from Dayun Coal Mine and Baiping Coal Mine to the coal beneficiation plant for coal processing, which was partially offset by the decrease in material, fuel and energy costs resulting from the decrease in repair and maintenance of equipment and transport belts.

Gross Profit and Gross Margin

As a result of the foregoing, the overall gross profit from continuing operations decreased by approximately 6.2% from approximately CNY317.1 million in 2019 to approximately CNY297.4 million in 2020, mainly due to the decrease in sales volume of self-produced anthracite coal. The overall gross margin from continuing operations, which is equal to gross profit divided by revenue, slightly increased from approximately 27.6% in 2019 to approximately 29.4% in 2020, primarily because of the rise in the average selling price of anthracite coal as discussed above.

Selling and Distribution Expenses

The selling and distribution expenses from continuing operations decreased by approximately 8.5% from approximately CNY116.4 million in 2019 to approximately CNY106.5 million in 2020, which was primarily attributable to the decrease in transportation fee arising from the decrease in sales volume of thermal coal, which the Group was responsible for delivery cost which has been included in the selling price of thermal coal.

Administrative Expenses

The administrative expenses from continuing operations increased by approximately 3.4% from approximately CNY135.3 million in 2019 to approximately CNY139.9 million in 2020. The increase was mainly due to the increase in loss arising from temporary suspension production of Dayun Coal Mine.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Impairment of Financial Assets

The Group made the provision for impairment of trade receivables from continuing operations of approximately CNY7.4 million in 2020 compared to approximately CNY0.6 million in 2019. The increase in impairment of trade receivables was mainly due to the increase in the expected credit losses.

Impairment Losses on Property, Plant and Equipment

The Group had impairment losses on property, plant and equipment from continuing operations of approximately CNY246.2 million in 2020, resulting from the mining area adjustment of Liujiaba Coal Mine by the relevant authority in order to facilitate better urban and regional planning as disclosed in the Business Update Announcement of the Company dated 8 December 2020 and the higher production cost incurred by Liujiaba Coal Mine. No impairment loss on property, plant and equipment incurred in 2019.

Other Operating Expenses

Other operating expenses from continuing operations decreased to approximately CNY22.5 million in 2020 from approximately CNY33.7 million in 2019 which was primarily due to the decrease in the compensation paid to local residents for repairing the damaged houses and/or relocation affected by the mines' operations of the Group in 2020 and Liujiaba Coal Mine receipt the price subsidy of thermal coal from municipal government for supply of thermal coal to the power plant.

Operating Loss/Profit

As a result of the foregoing, the Group recorded the operating loss from continuing operations of approximately CNY225.0 million in 2020, as compared to the operating profit of approximately CNY31.1 million in 2019.

Finance Costs

The finance costs from continuing operations increased by approximately 79.0% from approximately CNY92.1 million in 2019 to approximately CNY164.8 million in 2020, which was principally due to an increase in interest expenses on interest-bearing bank and other borrowings arising from the increase in interest-bearing bank and other borrowings.

Income Tax

The Group had an income tax credit from continuing operations of approximately CNY40.9 million in 2020, as compared to an income tax expense of approximately CNY17.5 million in 2019. The decrease in income tax expense was mainly due to the decrease in current profit before income tax and the additional reversal of deferred tax liabilities resulting from the increased impairment loss on property, plant and equipment of Liujiaba Coal Mine.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Loss for the year from Continuing Operations

The loss from continuing operations increased to approximately CNY346.9 million in 2020 from approximately CNY75.8 million in 2019. The increase in loss from continuing operations in 2020 was mainly caused by (i) the decrease of approximately CNY19.7 million in gross profit resulting from the decrease in sales volume of self-produced anthracite coal; (ii) the increase of approximately CNY246.2 million in impairment losses on property, plant and equipment resulting from the mining area adjustment of Liujiaba Coal Mine and the higher production cost incurred by Liujiaba Coal Mine; (iii) the increase of approximately CNY72.7 million in finance costs mainly due to the increase in interest-bearing bank and other borrowings; (iv) the increase of approximately CNY6.8 million in impairment of trade receivables; and (v) the increase of approximately CNY4.6 million in administrative expenses mainly due to the increase in loss arising from temporary suspension production of Dayun Coal Mine. The increase in loss was partially offset by (i) the decrease of approximately CNY58.4 million in income tax expense mainly due to the decrease in current profit before income tax and the additional reversal of deferred tax liabilities; (ii) the decrease of approximately CNY9.9 million in selling expenses mainly due to the decrease in transportation fee; and (iii) the decrease of approximately CNY11.2 million in other operating expenses mainly due to the decrease in the compensation paid to local residents for repairing the damaged houses and/or relocation affected by the mines' operations of the Group and Liujiaba Coal Mine receipt the price subsidy of thermal coal from municipal government.

Loss Attributable to Owners of the Parent from Continuing Operations

The loss attributable to owners of the parent from continuing operations increased to approximately CNY345.9 million in 2020 from approximately CNY97.1 million in 2019. The reasons for the increase in the loss attributable to owners of the parent from continuing operations in 2020 have been discussed above.

DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

(a) Discontinued operation of Gouchang Coal Mine

Since March 2013, the operations of Gouchang Coal Mine had been suspended pending the acquisition of a nearby coal mine and achieving certain production targets in accordance with Guizhou Province's coal mine consolidation policy. The Group closed down Gouchang Coal Mine in accordance with the second batch of the restructuring proposal approved by the Energy Bureau of Guizhou Province and the Leading Group Office of Guizhou Province on Coal Enterprises Consolidation on 5 January 2016.

In 2020, works at Gouchang Coal Mine had substantially ceased, therefore the operating results have been reclassified as a discontinued operation.

(b) Discontinued operation of Guizhou Nayong Dayuan Coal Mining Co., Ltd. ("Guizhou Dayuan")

On 24 May 2019, Guizhou Puxin Energy Co., Ltd. ("Guizhou Puxin"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Group, entered into an equity transfer agreement with Guiyang Baoshun Energy Co., Ltd. ("Baoshun"), an independent third party, to dispose its entire equity interest in Guizhou Dayuan, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Guizhou Puxin, at an aggregate consideration of CNY55.0 million. Guizhou Dayuan is mainly engaged in the extraction and sale of anthracite coal in Nayong County, Guizhou Province, the PRC. The consideration shall be payable by Baoshun in various tranches upon the satisfactions of the subsequent conditions. During the year of 2019, Guizhou Puxin received tranches of CNY50.0 million from Baoshun. Up to 31 December 2020, the transaction was not yet completed, and Guizhou Dayuan was classified as a disposal group held for sale and as a discontinued operation.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

DISCLOSURE OF CHANGE OF DIRECTORS' INFORMATION

Mr. WANG Tao resigned as an executive Director on 6 July 2020.

Mr. YUE Ming Wai resigned as an independent non-executive director of Palace Banquet Holdings Limited (a company listed on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange) (stock code: 1703) on 31 March 2021.

Save as disclosed above, the Directors are not aware of any change in the Directors' information required to be disclosed pursuant to Rule 13.51B(1) of the Listing Rules subsequent to the publication of the interim report of the Company for the six months ended 30 June 2020.

DIRECTORS' RIGHTS TO ACQUIRE SHARES OR DEBENTURES OF THE COMPANY AND OTHER CORPORATION

Other than the share option as disclosed under the paragraph headed "Share Option Scheme of the Company" below, at no time during the year was the Company, its holding company, or any of its subsidiaries or fellow subsidiaries, a party to any arrangements to enable the Directors to acquire benefits by means of the acquisition of shares in, or debentures of, the Company or any other body corporate, and neither the Directors nor the chief executive, nor any of their spouses or children under the age of 18, had any right to subscribe for the securities of the Company, or had exercised any such right.

SHARE OPTION SCHEME OF THE COMPANY

A share option scheme was adopted by the Shareholders on 23 December 2013 (the "Date of Adoption") (the "Share Option Scheme"), under which the Board may, at its discretion, offer any Eligible Persons (as hereinafter defined) options to subscribe for shares in the Company (the "Shares") subject to the terms and conditions stipulated therein. The Share Option Scheme is valid and effective for a period of 10 years from the Date of Adoption. The Share Option Scheme is an incentive scheme and is established to enable the Group to recognise the contribution that certain individuals have made to the Company, to attract and retain the best available personnel and to promote the success of the Company's business and that of its subsidiaries. The Eligible Persons include (a) any employee, director or consultant of the Company or any subsidiary; or (b) any other person who has contributed to the success of the listing of the Company on the Stock Exchange, in each case, as determined by the Board. The eligibility of an Eligible Person will be determined by the Board with reference to his or her past and expected commitment and contribution to the Company and/or the subsidiaries.

The share options are exercisable at any time for a period to be determined by the Directors, which shall not be more than 10 years from the offer date. The minimum period for which a share option must be held before it can be exercised would be determined by the Board.

The total number of Shares in respect of which options may be granted under the Share Option Scheme as refreshed was 138,054,580 Shares (the “Refreshed Scheme Mandate Limit”), representing 10% of the Shares in issue as at the date of approval of the Refreshed Scheme Mandate Limit. The Refreshed Scheme Mandate Limit was approved by Shareholders on 31 May 2017 by ordinary resolution. The listing approval in respect of the Shares which may be issued on exercise of the options under the Share Option Scheme was granted by the Listing Committee of the Stock Exchange on 2 June 2017. The number of Shares in respect of which options may be granted to any Eligible Person in any 12-month period is not permitted to exceed 1% of the Shares in issue at any point in time, unless approved by the Shareholders. In addition, the number of Shares in respect of which options may be granted to any Eligible Person (who is a substantial shareholder or an independent non-executive Director or any of their respective associates (within the meaning under the Listing Rules)) in any 12-month period is not permitted to exceed 0.1% of the total number of Shares in issue and HK$5,000,000 in an aggregate value, based on the closing price of the Shares at the date of each grant, unless approved by the Shareholders.

The subscription price for the Shares under the Share Option Scheme shall be a price determined by the Board at its sole discretion and notified to the Eligible Persons (subject to any adjustments made pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Share Option Scheme) and shall be the higher of (i) the closing price of the Shares as stated in the Stock Exchange’s daily quotations sheet on the offer date, (ii) the average closing prices of the Shares as stated in the Stock Exchange’s daily quotation sheets for the five trading days immediately preceding the offer date, and (iii) the nominal value of a Share.

Consideration of HK$1 is payable by each Eligible Person for the grant of option.

As at 31 December 2020, no options were granted or agreed to be granted since the Date of Adoption. The Company had a total of 138,054,580 Shares available for issue under the Share Option Scheme (representing 10% of the existing issued Shares of the Company as at the date of this report) and the remaining life of the Share Option Scheme was approximately 2 years and 9 months.

Additional information in relation to the Share Option Scheme is set out in note 32 to the consolidated financial statements of this report.

DIRECTORS’ SERVICE CONTRACT

There is no unexpired directors’ service contract which is not terminable by the Company within one year without payment of compensation, other than statutory compensation, of any Director proposed for re-election at the forthcoming annual general meeting (“AGM”).

DIRECTORS’ REMUNERATION

The Directors’ fees and other emoluments are determined by the Board with reference to Directors’ duties, responsibilities and subject to review from time to time.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' INTERESTS IN TRANSACTIONS, ARRANGEMENTS OR CONTRACTS OF SIGNIFICANCE

Save as disclosed in this report, no transactions, arrangements or contracts of significance to which the Company or any related company (holding companies, subsidiaries, or fellow subsidiaries) was a party and in which a Director or an entity connected with a Director had a material interest, whether directly or indirectly, subsisted at the end of the year or at any time during the year.

CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS AND CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

Details of the connected transactions/continuing connected transactions of the Company during the year are as follows:

(a) Connected transactions

During the year, the Group did not enter into any transactions which need to be disclosed as connected transactions pursuant to Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.

(b) Continuing connected transactions

During the year, the Group did not enter into any transactions which need to be disclosed as continuing connected transactions pursuant to Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.

Details of the related party transactions are set out in note 35 to the consolidated financial statements of this report. These related party transactions, except for the transactions relating to share of office rental with Anka Consultants Limited and Feishang Enterprise, respectively, did not constitute any connected transactions/continuing connected transactions under the Listing Rules.

CONSOLIDATION OF COAL MINES IN GUIZHOU AND RESTRUCTURING PROPOSAL

With the view to facilitating the consolidation of the coal mining industry, the Guizhou Government has implemented a number of measures to encourage the consolidation of the coal mine industry and to eliminate small-scaled coal mines in Guizhou province with an annual production capacity of below 300,000 tonnes for each single mine, to reduce the total number of coal mining enterprise groups in Guizhou province to below 100, and to reduce the total number of coal mines in Guizhou to approximately 1,000.

Under the Guizhou Government's coal mine consolidation policy, Guizhou Feishang Energy Co., Ltd. ("Feishang Energy") (an associate of Mr. LI Feilie, the controlling shareholder of the Company) and the Company were designated as a coal mine consolidator in Guizhou province on 6 June 2014.

Feishang Energy (as agreed by the Company) has adopted and implemented the following restructuring proposal (“Restructuring Proposal”):

- Feishang Energy closed down Sanjiazhai Coal Mine (三家寨煤礦);
- Feishang Energy acquired and operated three coal mines, namely Pingqiao Coal Mine (平橋煤礦), Xingwang Coal Mine (興旺煤礦), and Aohe Coal Mine (凹河煤礦); and
- Feishang Energy acquired five coal mines, namely, Guojiawuji Coal Mine (國家屋基煤礦), Qiwen Coal Mine (啟文煤礦), Hengfeng Coal Mine (恒豐煤礦), Xinhe Coal Mine (新禾煤礦), and Shangmaying Coal Mine (上馬營煤礦) and has submitted the mining right permits of these coal mines in stage to the relevant authority for cancellation. All of the mining right permits of the five coal mines have been cancelled.

On 26 January 2015, the first batch of the Restructuring Proposal of Feishang Energy together with Guizhou Puxin has been approved by the Energy Bureau of Guizhou Province and the Leading Group Office of Guizhou Province on Coal Enterprises Consolidation. Under the first batch of the Restructuring Proposal, the Group will integrate Zhulinzhai Coal Mine and Liujiaba Coal Mine, both located in Xinhua, Liuzhi Special District, Zhina Coal District, Guizhou province, into a single coal mine under the name of Liujiaba Coal Mine; and retain Dayun Coal Mine and Baiping Coal Mine, both located in Jinsha county, Guizhou province. On 5 January 2016, the second batch of the Restructuring Proposal of Feishang Energy together with Guizhou Puxin has been approved by the Energy Bureau of Guizhou Province and the Leading Group Office of Guizhou Province on Coal Enterprises Consolidation. Under the second batch of the Restructuring Proposal, the Group has closed down Gouchang Coal Mine and retained Yongsheng Coal Mine. On 24 May 2019, Guizhou Puxin entered into an equity transfer agreement with Baoshun, to dispose of its entire equity interest in Guizhou Dayuan. Up to 31 December 2020, the transaction was not yet completed. On 4 December 2020, Guizhou Puxin received an amended new mining right permit of Liujiaba Coal Mine. According to the new mining right permit, the mining area of Liujiaba Coal Mine has been adjusted to facilitate better urban and regional planning as disclosed in the Business Update Announcement of the Company dated 8 December 2020.

Upon the full completion of the implementation of the Restructuring Proposal, the Group will own and operate four coal mines in Guizhou province, namely, Baiping Coal Mine, Yongsheng Coal Mine, Dayun Coal Mine and Liujiaba Coal Mine.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

DEED OF NON-COMPETITION

Feishang Group Limited, Laitan Investments Limited and Mr. LI Feilie (collectively, the “Controlling Shareholders”), Feishang Energy and Feishang Enterprise executed the Deed of Non-Competition in favour of the Company, details of which are set out in the Listing Document, principally to the effect that so long as the Deed of Non-Competition remains in force, each of the Controlling Shareholders, Feishang Energy and Feishang Enterprise has undertaken to, among other things:

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

The Board and the management of the Company are committed to the maintenance of good corporate governance practices and procedures. The Company believes that good corporate governance provides a framework that is essential for effective management, a healthy corporate culture, sustainable business growth and enhancing Shareholders' value.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

The Company has adopted the code provisions as set out in the Corporate Governance Code (the "CG Code") as contained in Appendix 14 to the Listing Rules as its own corporate governance code. Throughout the year ended 31 December 2020, the Company has complied with the code provisions as set out in the CG Code, save and except for code provision A.2.1, as set out below.

Chairman and Chief Executive

Code provision A.2.1 of the CG Code stipulates that the roles of the chairman and the chief executive should be separate and should not be performed by the same individual. Currently, Mr. HAN Weibing assumes the role of both the chairman and the chief executive officer of the Company. The Board considers that this arrangement is in the best interests of the Group as it allows for efficient discharge of the executive functions of the chief executive officer. The Board believes that the balance of power and authority is adequately ensured by the operations of the Board which comprises experienced and high-calibre individuals including three independent non-executive Directors offering independent advice from different perspectives. In addition, major decisions are made after consultation with the Board and senior management as well as the relevant Board committees. The Board is therefore of the view that there are adequate measures in place to balance power and safeguard Shareholders' interests.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Composition

As at the date of this report, the Board comprises eight members, consisting of five executive Directors namely Mr. HAN Weibing (chairman of the Board and chief executive officer), Mr. HU Lubao, Mr. TAM Cheuk Ho, Mr. WONG Wah On Edward and Mr. YUE Ming Wai Bonaventure and three independent non-executive Directors, namely, Mr. HUANG Zuye, Mr. LO Kin Cheung and Mr. WANG Xiufeng.

All Directors have distinguished themselves in their field of expertise, and have exhibited high standards of personal and professional ethics and integrity. The biographical details of each Director are disclosed in the section headed "Profiles of Directors and Senior Management" of this report.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

Independent Non-executive Directors

The Board has at least one-third of its membership comprising independent non-executive Directors and is in compliance with Rule 3.10A of the Listing Rules. One of the three independent non-executive Directors possesses appropriate professional experience and related financial management expertise.

The Company has received from each of the independent non-executive Directors an annual confirmation that each of them and his immediate family members (as defined under Rule 14A.12(1)(a) of the Listing Rules) are independent from the Group as required under Rule 3.13 of the Listing Rules and the Company also considers that they are independent. The Board members have no financial, business, family or other material/relevant relationship with each other.

Directors' Re-election

Pursuant to the Articles of Association, the Directors shall hold office subject to retirement by rotation at the AGM of the Company at least once every three years. In addition, any Director appointed by the Board during a year, whether to fill a casual vacancy or as additional member to the Board, shall hold office only until the next following AGM of the Company and shall then be eligible for re-election in that meeting. Mr. HAN Weibing, Mr. WONG Wah On Edward and Mr. LO Kin Cheung are subject to retirement by rotation and are eligible for re-election at the forthcoming AGM of the Company in accordance with the Articles of Association. Mr. HU Lubao who shall also retire by rotation from office at the AGM, will not offer himself for re-election.

Term of Appointment of Independent Non-executive Directors

Each of the independent non-executive Director has entered into a service agreement with the Company for a term of three years and is subject to retirement by rotation and re-election at the AGM of the Company in accordance with the Articles of Association.

Responsibilities of the Board and Management

The Board, headed by the chairman, is responsible for providing high-level guidance and overseeing the management of the Company, formulating and approving the Group's development, business strategies, policies, annual budgets and business plans, recommending any dividend in accordance with the dividend policy adopted in 2018 which requires the Board to take into account a variety of factors before making such recommendation, and ensuring compliance with relevant statutory requirements and other rules and regulations.

The chief executive officer and the other executive Directors are responsible for the day-to-day management and operations of the Group. The executive Directors conduct regular meetings with the management of the Group, at which operational issues and financial performance are evaluated and dealt with.

The Company considers that risk management and internal control systems are essential and that the Board is responsible for ensuring the Group establishes and maintains effective risk management and internal control.

Responsibilities of Directors

In the course of discharging their duties, the Directors act in good faith, with due diligence and care, and in the best interests of the Company and its Shareholders. Their responsibilities include the following:

- attending regular Board meetings and focusing on business strategy, operational issues and financial performance;
- active participation in the respective board of directors of the subsidiaries of the Company;
- approval of annual budgets covering strategy, financial and business performance, key risks and opportunities;
- monitoring the quality, timeliness, relevance and reliability of internal and external reporting;
- monitoring and managing potential conflicts of interest of senior management, the Board and Shareholders;
- consideration of misuse of corporate assets and abuse of related party transactions; and
- ensuring processes are in place to maintain the overall integrity of the Company, including financial statements, relationships with suppliers, customers and other stakeholders, and compliance with all laws and ethics.

To enable the Directors to fulfil their obligations, an appropriate organisational structure is in place with clearly defined responsibilities and limits of authority.

Matters specifically decided by the Board and those reserved for the management, such as daily management, administration and operation of the Company, etc., are reviewed by the Board on a periodic basis. The management shall report back to the Board.

There are procedures in place to enable Directors to seek independent professional advice in appropriate circumstances at the Company's expenses were established.

The Articles of Association state the responsibilities and operational procedures of the Board. The Board meets at least four times a year at regular intervals to consider operational reports and financial results of the Company and policies. Significant operational policies have to be discussed and passed by the Board.

Corporate Governance Functions

The Board is responsible for performing the following corporate governance duties as required under the CG Code:

- to develop and review the Company's policies and practices on corporate governance;
- to review and monitor the training and continuous professional development of Directors and senior management;
- to review and monitor the Company's policies and practices on compliance with legal and regulatory requirements;
- to develop, review and monitor the code of conduct and compliance manual applicable to employees and Directors; and
- to review the Company's compliance with the CG Code and disclosure in the Corporate Governance Report.

During the year ended 31 December 2020, the Board had performed the following corporate governance duties:

- approval of Ernst & Young as the auditor of the Group and the corresponding audit plan;
- review of the compliance with the CG Code; and
- review of the effectiveness of the risk management and internal control systems of the Company through the Audit Committee.

Board Committees

A number of committees of the Board, including the Audit Committee, Nomination Committee, Remuneration Committee and Corporate Social Responsibility Committee, were established by the Company on 23 December 2013, with specific terms of reference relating to authority and duties, to strengthen the Board's functions and enhance its expertise.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee comprises three independent non-executive Directors. During the year ended 31 December 2020, the Audit Committee was chaired by Mr. LO Kin Cheung, and its members comprised Mr. LO Kin Cheung, Mr. HUANG Zuye and Mr. WANG Xiufeng.

The Audit Committee reports directly to the Board and reviews financial statements, risk management and internal control in order to protect the interests of the Shareholders.

The Audit Committee meets at least twice a year with the Company's independent auditor to discuss accounting issues, and review effectiveness of internal controls and risk management. Written terms of reference, which describe the authority and duties of the Audit Committee, are regularly reviewed and updated by the Board. The terms of reference of the Audit Committee have complied with the CG Code and are posted on the designated website of the Stock Exchange at www.hkexnews.hk and the website of the Company at www.fsanthracite.com.

During the year ended 31 December 2020, the Audit Committee held two meetings, at which it:

- approved Ernst & Young as the auditor of the Group and the corresponding audit plan;

Nomination Committee

During the year ended 31 December 2020, the Nomination Committee was chaired by Mr. HUANG Zuye, an independent non-executive Director, and its members comprised Mr. HUANG Zuye, an executive Director Mr. TAM Cheuk Ho, and two independent non-executive Directors, namely, Mr. LO Kin Cheung and Mr. WANG Xiufeng.

The terms of reference of the Nomination Committee have complied with the CG Code which are posted on the designated website of the Stock Exchange at www.hkexnews.hk and the website of the Company at www.fsanthracite.com.

The Nomination Committee's responsibilities include reviewing and recommending the structure, size, composition and diversity of the Board and recommending any change thereon; assessing the independence of independent non-executive Directors and recommending the re-election of Directors, etc.

During the year ended 31 December 2020, the Nomination Committee held one meeting, at which it:

- reviewed the structure, size, composition and diversity (including the skills, knowledge and experience) of the Board;
- recommended the appointment of directors;
- assessed the independence of the independent non-executive Directors; and
- reviewed and made recommendations to the Board on re-election of retiring Directors at the AGM.

The attendance record of the meetings is set out below:

Members of Nomination Committee	Attendance/ No. of meeting(s)
HUANG Zuye ( Chairman )	1/1
LO Kin Cheung	1/1
TAM Cheuk Ho	1/1
WANG Xiufeng	1/1

The Board has adopted the board diversity policy ("Board Diversity Policy") in accordance with the requirement set out in the CG Code. Such policy aims to set out the approach towards achieving diversity on the Board.

In assessing the Board composition, the Nomination Committee would consider a number of perspectives as set out in the Board Diversity Policy, including but not limited to professional qualifications, regional and industry experience, educational and cultural background, skills, industry knowledge and reputation, gender, ethnicity, language skills and length of service, when making recommendations to the Board on the appointment and re-appointment of Directors and Directors' succession planning.

The Company considers that the current composition of the Board is well balanced and of a diverse mix appropriate for the business of the Company.

MODEL CODE FOR SECURITIES TRANSACTIONS BY DIRECTORS

The Company has adopted the Model Code as the code of conduct regarding securities transactions by the Directors. Having made specific enquiry of all Directors, all Directors confirmed that they have complied with the required standard set out in the Model Code throughout the year ended 31 December 2020 and up to the date of this report.

The Company also has written guidelines regarding securities transactions on terms no less exacting than the required standard set out in the Model Code for senior management and any individuals who may have access to inside information in relation to the securities of the Company.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

INSIDE INFORMATION

The Group acknowledges its responsibilities under the SFO and the Listing Rules and the overriding principle that inside information should be announced immediately when it is the subject of a decision. The procedures and internal controls for the handling and dissemination of inside information are as follows:

- the Group conducts its affairs with close regard to the disclosure requirement under the Listing Rules as well as the “Guidelines on Disclosure of Inside Information” published by the Securities and Futures Commission of Hong Kong in June 2012;
- the Group has implemented and disclosed its policy on fair disclosure by pursuing broad, non-exclusive distribution of information to the public through channels such as financial reporting, public announcements and its website;
- the Group has strictly prohibited unauthorised use of confidential or inside information; and
- the Group has established and implemented procedures for responding to external enquiries about the Group’s affairs, so that only the executive Directors and company secretary are authorised to communicate with parties outside the Group.

AUDITOR’S REMUNERATION

RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROL

Risk Management Philosophy

Risk is inherent in the Group's business and the markets in which it operates. The goal of the Group is to identify and manage these risks so that the risks can be reduced, mitigated, transferred or avoided. To this end, the Group adopts a proactive risk management approach and implements an effective group-wide risk management framework.

The Board oversees the Group's overall risk management process through the Audit Committee, and it forms an important part of the corporate governance regime of the Group. The Group understands that risk management is the responsibility of everyone within the Group. Rather than being a separate and standalone process, risk management is integrated into business and decision-making processes including strategy formulation, business development, business planning, capital allocation, investment decisions, internal control and daily operations.

Group Risk Management and Internal Control Framework

The Board is responsible for the Group's risk management and internal control systems and for reviewing their effectiveness, while management is responsible for designing and implementing an internal control system to manage risks.

The Audit Committee assists the Board in monitoring the risk exposures, the design and operating effectiveness of the relevant risk management and internal control systems. The Audit Committee oversees the following procedures on behalf of the Board:

- (i) Periodic assessment of key operational risks and control measures aimed at mitigating, reducing or transferring such risks; the strengths and weaknesses of the overall internal control system, and action programs to address the control weaknesses or improve the assessment process;
- (ii) Regularly review the business processes and operational reports, including the action plan to address the identified weaknesses in control, and the latest status and monitor results in the implementation of the recommendations; and
- (iii) The external auditor regularly report on the control issues identified in the course of their work and meet with the Audit Committee to discuss the scope and results of the review.

The Audit Committee will then report to the Board after properly reviewing the effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control systems. The Group does not maintain its own internal audit team due to cost-saving reason but the internal audit team of the Group's related party is shared with the Group to assist the Audit Committee to review the effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control systems.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

The Board considers the works and findings of the Audit Committee in forming its own view on the effectiveness of the systems.

“Top-down” Overseeing, identification, assessment and mitigation of risk at corporate level. 	The Board of Directors
	Responsible for the Group’s risk management and internal control systems.	Sets strategic objectives and reviews the effectiveness of the Group’s risk management and internal control systems.	Monitors the nature and extent of the Group’s major risks.	Provides guidance on the importance of risk management and risk management culture.
	Management	Audit Committee		Internal Audit
 “Bottom-up” Identification, assessment and mitigation of risk at business unit level and across functional areas.	Designs, implements, and monitors risk management and internal control systems.	Assists the Board in monitoring risk exposure, design and operating effectiveness of the underlying risk management and internal control systems.		Assists the Audit Committee to review the effectiveness of the Group’s risk management and internal control systems.
	Operational level
	Risk identification, assessment and mitigation performed across the business.		Risk management process and internal control practised across business operations and functional areas.

Risk Management Procedures

This “top-down” approach is complemented by the “bottom-up” aspects, which require the head of the operating unit to participate in the identification of operational risks to determine the Group’s major risks.

The Group’s risk management and integrated internal control framework are closely intertwined, and major control measures are tested to assess performance.

Major Risk Management and Internal Control Initiatives in 2020

- The Group has adopted a number of policies and procedures to assess and prudently improve the effectiveness of risk management and internal control systems, including requiring the management of the Group to assess the relevant matters every year on a regular basis. The Group believes that this will help enhancing the Group's future corporate governance and business operations.
- The Group has embraced its risk management system into its core business operations. The operating units of the Company will continue to review and assess the potential risks that may have an impact on the ability of operational units and/or the Company to reach their business objectives. The review process includes assessing whether the existing internal control system continues to meet business demand, whether it responds to potential risks sufficiently and/or whether it needs to be supplemented. The results of the relevant review are recorded in the risk register of each operating unit for control and loading into the Group's comprehensive risk register for analysis of potential policy implications and for regular reporting to senior management and Directors.
- The Audit Committee has developed and supervises a reporting policy and a comprehensive set of procedures. Employees, customers, suppliers and other interested parties are able to report any actual or suspected misconduct involving the Company so that the matter may be investigated and effectively dealt with in an appropriate and transparent manner.
- The Group regulates the handling and issuance of inside information contained in the corporate responsibility policy and the subsidiary procedures to ensure that inside information is kept confidential until properly approved for disclosure and to ensure the effective and consistent publication of the relevant information.
- Other initiatives include: increasing the number of training courses and risk workshops when necessary; further standardising risk reporting terms, categories and quantifications; making the assessment of internal controls more closely linked to their potential risks; and increasing the frequency and depth of interaction with designated Directors on the Company's risk management system design, operation and findings.
- During 2020, selective reviews of the effectiveness of the systems of risk management and internal control of the Group over financial, operational and compliance controls with emphasis on coal mining, procurement, sales and business continuity management have been conducted by the internal audit team of the Group's related party. In addition, the heads of major business and corporate functions of the Group were required to undertake self-assessments of their key controls. These results were assessed by the same internal audit team and reported to the Audit Committee and the Board.

Employees are expected to observe the highest standard of ethical, integrity and professional conduct. The Group has adopted a whistle-blowing policy. The Audit Committee meets regularly with the Company's senior management to consider the effectiveness of risk management and internal control of the Company. As far as the Group is aware, there were no fraudulent practices brought to the Group's attention during the year.

Risk Profile

As a basis for the risk management approach, the Group's current risk profile is evaluated as to how these risks change over time. In 2020, the Group's significant risks were identified through the risk identification process as follows:

Introduction to risk	Risk changes in 2020	Major risk mitigation measures
Market risk The Group's business continued to depend on the demand for anthracite from the downstream industries and the business growth of downstream customers, especially in the cement, chemical, construction and steel industries. A significant downturn in these industries or a significant decline in customer demand may have adverse effects on the Group's business, operating results and financial results. During 2020, the coal market was highly volatile due to impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic.	Increase	The Group has adopted and adhered to the market strategy of product differentiation and building a brand name of Feishang Anthracite. In May and October 2020, two newly constructed large coal washing plants each with annual production capacity of 0.6 million tonnes were completed, and this greatly improved the Group's coal washing capacity and ability to control product quality and optimise product mix. The Group made and will continue to make great efforts in coal quality management, including further investment in the expansion of coal washing capacity, setting up coal quality control teams and formulating coal quality control policies, in response to the temporary deterioration in the quality of its coal products due to geological complexities of current mining faces.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

Introduction to risk	Risk changes in 2020	Major risk mitigation measures
Going concern risk The Group's business is capital intensive and requires sufficient cash flows to construct and develop coal mines, to purchase machinery and equipment, and to meet daily working capital demands. As at 31 December 2020, the Group had net current liabilities of approximately CNY1,337.4 million and shareholders' deficit of approximately CNY551.8 million. If the Group failed to obtain funds in a timely manner, it would have an adverse impact on the Group's financial condition, operations and prospects.	Increase	The Group managed to obtain bank credit facilities from the banks and enter into loan renewal discussions with the existing banks and obtain continuous financial support from Feishang Enterprise, an entity controlled by the ultimate controlling shareholder Mr. Li Feilie. Additionally, the Group was in the process of implementing the following measures to improve the Group's cash flows, (i) focusing on coal quality management to improve the competitiveness and average selling price of its coal products; (ii) continuing to expand production output in pursuit of economies of scale and opportunities for better product diversification; and (iii) taking measures to tighten cost controls over various production costs and expenses. Considering the above measures, the Group will meet the working capital requirements in the next 12 months.
Production safety risk Safety risks are inherent in the Group's mining operation. Gas explosion, coal and gas outburst, caving, coal mine floods and secondary geological disasters might lead to injury, death or serious property loss, or disruption to or even suspension of the Group's mine operations.	Unchanged	To improve the safety of coal mines, the Group has implemented a variety of measures to strengthen safety standards, such as establishing safety management committees and safety supervision departments to check the safety of coal mines, installing new safety equipment and facilities, establishing additional operational safety guidelines, and implementing production safety system and strengthening training. In 2020, the Group did not have any major accidents leading to casualty.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

Introduction to risk	Risk changes in 2020	Major risk mitigation measures
Supervision risk Coal mining is a highly regulated industry in China. The Group's coal mining operations are subject to supervision under extensive Chinese laws, regulations, policies, and standards for production safety, environmental protection, taxation, and labour and foreign exchange control, and China's coal mine safety and environmental protection supervision are increasingly stringent. Any irregularities or non-compliance may lead to fines and administrative penalties, including suspension of operation or revocation of business licenses.	Unchanged	The Group's Corporate Social Responsibility Committee and the management, with the support of external professional advisers, will review and supervise the compliance of the Group with relevant laws, regulations, codes and related policies and practices, and the Listing Rules on a regular basis.

2020 Annual Risk Management and Internal Control Effectiveness

The Board conducts review of the Group's risk management and internal control systems at least once a year.

For the year ended 31 December 2020, the Board has conducted a review on the risk management and internal control systems of the Group and considered the risk management and internal control systems effective and adequate. No significant areas of concern that may affect the financial, operational, compliance controls, and risk management functions of the Group have been identified.

During the course of the review, the Board believed that the resources, qualification/experience of staff of the Group's accounting and financial reporting function, the internal audit function of the Group's related party, and their training and budget were adequate.

GOING CONCERN

As at 31 December 2020, the Group had net current liabilities of approximately CNY1,337.4 million and shareholders' deficit of approximately CNY551.8 million. In view of these circumstances, the Directors have given consideration to the future liquidity, performance of the Group and its available sources of finance in assessing whether the Group will have sufficient financial resources to continue as a going concern. Feishang Enterprise, controlled by Mr. LI Feilie, has undertaken to provide continuous financial support to the Group to enable it to have sufficient liquidity to finance its operations. Besides, on 10 December 2020, the Group has secured an additional loan facility from Bank of Guiyang totalling CNY100.0 million, which will expire on 4 December 2023, and the Group has subsequently drawn from the remaining loan facility amounting to CNY40.0 million on 19 January 2021, which will be repaid on 18 January 2022.

In order to improve the Group's profitability, liquidity and cash flows to sustain the Group as a going concern, the Group is in the process of implementing the following measures, namely: (i) focusing on coal quality management to improve the competitiveness and average selling price of its coal products by expanding coal washing capacity, setting up coal quality control teams and formulating coal quality control policies; (ii) continuing to expand production output in pursuit of economies of scale and opportunities for better product diversification; (iii) taking measures to tighten cost controls over various production costs and expenses; and (iv) entering into loan renewal discussions with the banks.

After taking into account the above measures, the Directors consider that the Group will be able to realise its assets and discharge its liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. Therefore, the consolidated financial statements of the Group have been prepared on a going concern basis.

COMPANY SECRETARY

The company secretary of the Company is Mr. YUE Ming Wai Bonaventure, who is also an executive Director of the Company.

The company secretary of the Company has duly complied with the relevant training requirement under Rule 3.29 of the Listing Rules.

CONSTITUTIONAL DOCUMENTS

There is no significant change in the Company's Memorandum and Articles of Association during the year ended 31 December 2020.

A copy of the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company is posted on the designated website of the Stock Exchange at www.hkexnews.hk and the website of the Company at www.fsanthracite.com.

In addition, procedure for Shareholders to propose a person for election as a Director is available on the Company's website at www.fsanthracite.com.

The above procedures are subject to the Articles of Association and applicable laws and regulations.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITY IN PREPARING THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Directors acknowledge that it is their responsibility to prepare the financial statements which give a true and fair view of the financial position of the Group and of the financial performance and cash flows of the Group for the year and which are in compliance with International Financial Reporting Standards, statutory requirements and other regulatory requirements. As at 31 December 2020, the Group had net current liabilities of approximately CNY1,337.4 million and shareholders' deficit of approximately CNY551.8 million. However, the Board has given consideration to the future liquidity and performance of the Group and its available sources of finance in assessing whether the Group will have sufficient financial resources to continue as a going concern. The Board endeavours to ensure a balanced, clear and understandable assessment of the Group's performance, position and prospects in financial reporting. The statement of the auditor regarding their reporting responsibility for the financial statements is set out in the Independent Auditor's Report on pages 58 to 64 of this report. Save as disclosed in the paragraph headed "Going Concern" above, there are no material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt upon the Group's ability to continue as a going concern.

To the shareholders of Feishang Anthracite Resources Limited

(Incorporated in the British Virgin Islands with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Feishang Anthracite Resources Limited (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (the “Group”) set out on pages 65 to 153, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2020, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss, the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2020, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRSs”) issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”) and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing (“HKSA”) issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (the “HKICPA”). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor’s responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA’s Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the “Code”), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

MATERIAL UNCERTAINTY RELATED TO GOING CONCERN

We draw attention to Note 2.1 to the consolidated financial statements which indicates that as at 31 December 2020, the Group had net current liabilities of CNY1,337.4 million and shareholders' deficit of CNY551.8 million. This condition indicates the existence of a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context.

In addition to the matter described in the Material Uncertainty Related to Going Concern section, we have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

We have fulfilled the responsibilities described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report, including in relation to these matters. Accordingly, our audit included the performance of procedures designed to respond to our assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements. The results of our audit procedures, including the procedures performed to address the matters below, provide the basis for our audit opinion on the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS (continued)

Key audit matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
Impairment of property, plant and equipment (“PPE”)
As at 31 December 2020, the Group had property, plant and equipment in the amount of CNY2,529.7 million. As described in Note 2.4(f), Note 2.5(i) in “Estimates and assumptions” and Note 16 to the consolidated financial statements, the Group is required to review PPE for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. Management performed an impairment assessment on such PPE by determining the recoverable amounts of the cash generating units (“CGUs”) that the PPE are allocated to. As a result of the impairment assessment, impairment losses of CNY246.2 million were recognised during the year ended 31 December 2020. Auditing management’s impairment assessment of PPE was complex due to the significant estimates and judgments involved in the projections of future cash flows, including the future sales volumes, sales prices, future operating costs and discount rates applied to these forecasted future cash flows. These estimates and judgments may be significantly affected by unexpected changes in future market or economic conditions.	Among audit procedures performed, we compared the methodology used by the Group, that is, recoverable amount calculations based on future discounted cash flows, to industry practice and tested the completeness and accuracy of the underlying data used in the projections. We also assessed the significant assumptions used in the calculations, which included, amongst others, the future sales volumes, coal prices and operating costs by comparing them with recent historical results and the market trend forecasted by the external industry analysts. In addition, we involved our internal valuation specialists to assist us in evaluating the methodology and discount rates used in the calculation of the recoverable amounts. We evaluated the sensitivity of the significant assumptions described above by assessing the changes to the recoverable amounts of the CGUs resulting from changes in these assumptions. We also assessed the adequacy of the Group’s disclosures included in the consolidated financial statements regarding the impairment assessment.

Key audit matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
Recognition of deferred tax assets ("DTA")
As at 31 December 2020, the Group recognised deferred tax assets amounting to CNY89.9 million, mainly resulting from temporary differences and tax losses carried forward. As described in Note 2.4(t), Note 2.5(vi) in "Estimates and assumptions" and Note 13 to the consolidated financial statements, the Group recognised these deferred tax assets to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred tax assets to be recovered. Auditing management's recognition of deferred tax assets is complex because it requires significant estimation and judgment and involves significant assumptions, including future taxable profits, future tax rates, the reversal of deductible and taxable temporary differences, and the possible utilisation of tax losses carried forward that could be significantly affected by unexpected changes in tax law framework and future market or economic conditions.	Among audit procedures performed, we compared the future tax rates, nature of the deductible and taxable temporary differences, and the possible utilisation of tax losses carried forward, with the tax law framework. We recalculated the Group's utilisation of tax losses carried forward and reversal of deductible temporary differences used in management's calculation to determine whether the amounts exceeded the taxable profit and taxable temporary differences for the respective year. We evaluated management's significant assumptions in determining the future available taxable profits, for example, the future sales volumes, coal prices and operating costs by comparing them with the market trend forecasted by the external industry analysts and historical results. We also tested the completeness and accuracy of the underlying data used in the taxable profit forecast. We also assessed the adequacy of the Group's disclosures included in the consolidated financial statements regarding the deferred tax assets.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

OTHER INFORMATION INCLUDED IN THE ANNUAL REPORT

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the Management Discussion and Analysis on pages 10 to 11 and pages 16 to 22, which we obtained prior to the date of this audit report, and the other sections of the Annual Report not including the consolidated financial statements and the auditor's report thereon ("the Other Sections"), which are expected to be made available after that date.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

When we read the Other Sections of the Annual Report, if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate with the matter to the Group's Audit Committee.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE DIRECTORS FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with IFRSs issued by the IASB and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors of the Company are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors of the Company either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors of the Company are assisted by the Audit Committee in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Our report is made solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSA's will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSA's, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Tong Ka Yan Augustine.

2.1 BASIS OF PREPARATION

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with IFRSs, which comprise all standards and interpretations approved by the IASB, and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. They have been prepared under the historical cost convention. These financial statements are presented in Chinese Yuan (“CNY”) and all values are rounded to the nearest thousand except when otherwise indicated.

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2020. A subsidiary is an entity (including a structured entity), directly or indirectly, controlled by the Company. Control is achieved when the Group is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee (i.e., existing rights that give the Group the current ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee).

When the Company has, directly or indirectly, less than a majority of the voting or similar rights of an investee, the Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether it has power over an investee, including:

- (a) the contractual arrangement with the other vote holders of the investee;
- (b) rights arising from other contractual arrangements; and
- (c) the Group's voting rights and potential voting rights.

The financial statements of the subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting period as the Company, using consistent accounting policies. The results of subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which the Group obtains control, and continue to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases.

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the parent of the Group and to the non-controlling interests, even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance. All intra-group assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control described above. A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction.

If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it derecognises (i) the assets (including goodwill) and liabilities of the subsidiary, (ii) the carrying amount of any non-controlling interest and (iii) the cumulative translation differences recorded in equity; and recognises (i) the fair value of the consideration received, (ii) the fair value of any investment retained and (iii) any resulting surplus or deficit in profit or loss. The Group's share of components previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified to profit or loss or retained earnings, as appropriate, on the same basis as would be required if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities.

Going concern

As at 31 December 2020, the Group had net current liabilities of CNY1,337.4 million and shareholders' deficit of CNY551.8 million. In view of these circumstances, the Directors have given consideration to the future liquidity, performance of the Group and its available sources of finance in assessing whether the Group will have sufficient financial resources to continue as a going concern. Feishang Enterprise Group Co., Ltd. ("Feishang Enterprise"), controlled by Mr. Li Feilie, has undertaken to provide continuous financial support to the Group to enable it to have sufficient liquidity to finance its operations. Besides, on 10 December 2020, the Group has secured an additional loan facility from Bank of Guiyang totalling CNY100.0 million, which will expire on 4 December 2023, and the Group has subsequently drawn from the remaining loan facility amounting to CNY40.0 million on 19 January 2021, which will be repaid on 18 January 2022.

In order to improve the Group's profitability, liquidity and cash flows to sustain the Group as a going concern, the Group is in the process of implementing the following measures, namely: (i) focusing on coal quality management to improve the competitiveness and average selling price of its coal products by expanding coal washing capacity, setting up coal quality control teams and formulating coal quality control policies; (ii) continuing to expand production output in pursuit of economies of scale and opportunities for better product diversification; (iii) taking measures to tighten cost controls over various production costs and expenses; and (iv) entering into loan renewal discussions with banks.

After taking into account the above measures, the Directors consider that the Group will be able to realise its assets and discharge its liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. Therefore, the consolidated financial statements of the Group have been prepared on a going concern basis.

2.2 CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND DISCLOSURES

The Group has adopted the Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting 2018 and the following revised IFRSs for the first time for the current year's financial statements.

Amendments to IFRS 3	Definition of a Business
Amendments to IFRS 9, IAS 39 and IFRS 7	Interest Rate Benchmark Reform
Amendment to IFRS 16	Covid-19-Related Rent Concessions (early adopted)
Amendments to IAS 1 and IAS 8	Definition of Material

The nature and the impact of the Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting 2018 and the revised IFRSs are described below:

2.2 CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND DISCLOSURES (continued)

- (a) Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting 2018 (the “Conceptual Framework”) sets out a comprehensive set of concepts for financial reporting and standard setting, and provides guidance for preparers of financial statements in developing consistent accounting policies and assistance to all parties to understand and interpret the standards. The Conceptual Framework includes new chapters on measurement and reporting financial performance, new guidance on the derecognition of assets and liabilities, and updated definitions and recognition criteria for assets and liabilities. It also clarifies the roles of stewardship, prudence and measurement uncertainty in financial reporting. The Conceptual Framework is not a standard, and none of the concepts contained therein override the concepts or requirements in any standard. The Conceptual Framework did not have any significant impact on the financial position and performance of the Group.
- (b) Amendments to IFRS 3 clarify and provide additional guidance on the definition of a business. The amendments clarify that for an integrated set of activities and assets to be considered a business, it must include, at a minimum, an input and a substantive process that together significantly contribute to the ability to create output. A business can exist without including all of the inputs and processes needed to create outputs. The amendments remove the assessment of whether market participants are capable of acquiring the business and continue to produce outputs. Instead, the focus is on whether acquired inputs and acquired substantive processes together significantly contribute to the ability to create outputs. The amendments have also narrowed the definition of outputs to focus on goods or services provided to customers, investment income or other income from ordinary activities. Furthermore, the amendments provide guidance to assess whether an acquired process is substantive and introduce an optional fair value concentration test to permit a simplified assessment of whether an acquired set of activities and assets is not a business. The Group has applied the amendments prospectively to transactions or other events that occurred on or after 1 January 2020. The amendments did not have any impact on the financial position and performance of the Group.
- (c) Amendments to IFRS 9, IAS 39 and IFRS 7 address issues affecting financial reporting in the period before the replacement of an existing interest rate benchmark with an alternative risk-free rate (“RFR”). The amendments provide temporary reliefs which enable hedge accounting to continue during the period of uncertainty before the introduction of the alternative RFR. In addition, the amendments require companies to provide additional information to investors about their hedging relationships which are directly affected by these uncertainties. The amendments did not have any impact on the financial position and performance of the Group as the Group does not have any interest rate hedging relationships.

- (d) Amendment to IFRS 16 provides a practical expedient for lessees to elect not to apply lease modification accounting for rent concessions arising as a direct consequence of the covid-19 pandemic. The practical expedient applies only to rent concessions occurring as a direct consequence of the pandemic and only if (i) the change in lease payments results in revised consideration for the lease that is substantially the same as, or less than, the consideration for the lease immediately preceding the change; (ii) any reduction in lease payments affects only payments originally due on or before 30 June 2021; and (iii) there is no substantive change to other terms and conditions of the lease. The amendment is effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 June 2020 with earlier application permitted and shall be applied retrospectively. The amendment did not have any impact on the financial position and performance of the Group.
- (e) Amendments to IAS 1 and IAS 8 provide a new definition of material. The new definition states that information is material if omitting, misstating or obscuring it could reasonably be expected to influence decisions that the primary users of general purpose financial statements make on the basis of those financial statements. The amendments clarify that materiality will depend on the nature or magnitude of information, or both. The amendments did not have any significant impact on the financial position and performance of the Group.

2.3 ISSUED BUT NOT YET EFFECTIVE IFRSs

The Group has not applied the following new and revised IFRSs, that have been issued but are not yet effective, in these financial statements:

Amendments to IFRS 3	Reference to the Conceptual Framework<sup>2</sup>
Amendments to IFRS 9, IAS 39 and IFRS 7, IFRS 4 and IFRS 16	Interest Rate Benchmark Reform – Phase 2<sup>1</sup>
Amendments to IFRS 10 and IAS 28	Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture<sup>4</sup>
IFRS 17	Insurance Contracts<sup>3</sup>
Amendments to IFRS 17	Insurance Contracts<sup>3,5</sup>
Amendments to IAS 1	Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current<sup>3</sup>
Amendments to IAS 16	Property, Plant and Equipment: Proceeds before Intended Use<sup>2</sup>
Amendments to IAS 37	Onerous Contracts – Cost of Fulfilling a Contract<sup>2</sup>
Amendments to IAS 8	Definition of Accounting Estimates<sup>3</sup>
Amendments to IAS 1	Disclosure of Accounting Policies<sup>3</sup>
Annual Improvements to IFRS Standards 2018-2020	Amendments to IFRS 1, IFRS 9, Illustrative Examples accompanying IFRS 16, and IAS 41<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2021

<sup>2</sup> Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2022

<sup>5</sup> As a consequence of the amendments to IFRS 17 issued in June 2020, IFRS 4 was amended to extend the temporary exemption that permits insurers to apply IAS 39 rather than IFRS 9 for annual periods beginning before 1 January 2023

2.3 ISSUED BUT NOT YET EFFECTIVE IFRSs (continued)

Further information about those IFRSs that are expected to be applicable to the Group is described below.

Amendments to IFRS 3 are intended to replace a reference to the previous Framework for the Preparation and Presentation of Financial Statements with a reference to the Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting issued in March 2018 without significantly changing its requirements. The amendments also add to IFRS 3 an exception to its recognition principle for an entity to refer to the Conceptual Framework to determine what constitutes an asset or a liability. The exception specifies that, for liabilities and contingent liabilities that would be within the scope of IAS 37 or IFRIC 21 if they were incurred separately rather than assumed in a business combination, an entity applying IFRS 3 should refer to IAS 37 or IFRIC 21 respectively instead of the Conceptual Framework. Furthermore, the amendments clarify that contingent assets do not qualify for recognition at the acquisition date. The Group expects to adopt the amendments prospectively from 1 January 2022. Since the amendments apply prospectively to business combinations for which the acquisition date is on or after the date of first application, the Group will not be affected by these amendments on the date of transition.

Amendments to IFRS 9, IAS 39, IFRS 7, IFRS 4 and IFRS 16 address issues not dealt with in the previous amendments which affect financial reporting when an existing interest rate benchmark is replaced with an alternative RFR. The Phase 2 amendments provide a practical expedient to allow the effective interest rate to be updated without adjusting the carrying amount when accounting for changes in the basis for determining the contractual cash flows of financial assets and liabilities, if the change is a direct consequence of the interest rate benchmark reform and the new basis for determining the contractual cash flows is economically equivalent to the previous basis immediately preceding the change. In addition, the amendments permit changes required by the interest rate benchmark reform to be made to hedge designations and hedge documentation without the hedging relationship being discontinued. Any gains or losses that could arise on transition are dealt with through the normal requirements of IFRS 9 to measure and recognise hedge ineffectiveness. The amendments also provide a temporary relief to entities from having to meet the separately identifiable requirement when an RFR is designated as a risk component. The relief allows an entity, upon designation of the hedge, to assume that the separately identifiable requirement is met, provided the entity reasonably expects the RFR risk component to become separately identifiable within the next 24 months. Furthermore, the amendments require an entity to disclose additional information to enable users of financial statements to understand the effect of interest rate benchmark reform on an entity's financial instruments and risk management strategy. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2021 and shall be applied retrospectively, but entities are not required to restate the comparative information.

The Group had certain interest-bearing bank and other borrowings denominated in CNY based on various Interbank Offered Rates or the Loan Prime Rate published by the People's Bank of China as at 31 December 2020. If the interest rates of these borrowings are replaced by RFRs in a future period, the Group will apply this practical expedient upon the modification of these borrowings when the "economically equivalent" criterion is met and expects that no significant modification gain or loss will arise as a result of applying the amendments to these changes.

Amendments to IFRS 10 and IAS 28 address an inconsistency between the requirements in IFRS 10 and in IAS 28 in dealing with the sale or contribution of assets between an investor and its associate or joint venture. The amendments require a full recognition of a gain or loss when the sale or contribution of assets between an investor and its associate or joint venture constitutes a business. For a transaction involving assets that do not constitute a business, a gain or loss resulting from the transaction is recognised in the investor's profit or loss only to the extent of the unrelated investor's interest in that associate or joint venture. The amendments are to be applied prospectively. The previous mandatory effective date of amendments to IFRS 10 and IAS 28 was removed by the IASB in December 2015 and a new mandatory effective date will be determined after the completion of a broader review of accounting for associates and joint ventures. However, the amendments are available for adoption now. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the financial position and performance of the Group.

Amendments to IAS 1 clarify the requirements for classifying liabilities as current or non-current. The amendments specify that if an entity's right to defer settlement of a liability is subject to the entity complying with specified conditions, the entity has a right to defer settlement of the liability at the end of the reporting period if it complies with those conditions at that date. Classification of a liability is unaffected by the likelihood that the entity will exercise its right to defer settlement of the liability. The amendments also clarify the situations that are considered a settlement of a liability. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2023 and shall be applied retrospectively. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Amendments to IAS 16 prohibit an entity from deducting from the cost of an item of property, plant and equipment any proceeds from selling items produced while bringing that asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management. Instead, an entity recognises the proceeds from selling any such items, and the cost of those items, in profit or loss. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2022 and shall be applied retrospectively only to items of property, plant and equipment made available for use on or after the beginning of the earliest period presented in the financial statements in which the entity first applies the amendments. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Amendments to IAS 37 clarify that for the purpose of assessing whether a contract is onerous under IAS 37, the cost of fulfilling the contract comprises the costs that relate directly to the contract. Costs that relate directly to a contract include both the incremental costs of fulfilling that contract (e.g., direct labour and materials) and an allocation of other costs that relate directly to fulfilling that contract (e.g., an allocation of the depreciation charge for an item of property, plant and equipment used in fulfilling the contract as well as contract management and supervision costs). General and administrative costs do not relate directly to a contract and are excluded unless they are explicitly chargeable to the counterparty under the contract. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2022 and shall be applied to contracts for which an entity has not yet fulfilled all its obligations at the beginning of the annual reporting period in which it first applies the amendments. Earlier application is permitted. Any cumulative effect of initially applying the amendments shall be recognised as an adjustment to the opening equity at the date of initial application without restating the comparative information. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Amendments to IAS 8 introduce a new definition of accounting estimates. The amendments are designed to clarify the distinction between changes in accounting estimates and changes in accounting policies and the correction of errors. An entity shall apply these amendments for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2023. Earlier application is permitted. An entity shall apply the amendments to changes in accounting estimates and changes in accounting policies that occur on or after the beginning of the first annual reporting period in which it applies the amendments. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Amendments to IAS 1 to require an entity to disclose its material accounting policy information rather than its significant accounting policies. To help entities to apply the amendments to IAS 1, the IASB also amended IFRS Practice Statement 2 Making Materiality Judgements to illustrate how an entity can judge whether accounting policy information is material to its financial statements. The IASB added guidance and examples to IFRS Practice Statement 2 to help an entity apply the four-step materiality process to accounting policy information. An entity shall apply the amendments to IAS 1 for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2023. Earlier application is permitted. If an entity applies those amendments for an earlier period, it shall disclose that fact. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Annual Improvements to IFRS Standards 2018-2020 sets out amendments to IFRS 1, IFRS 9, Illustrative Examples accompanying IFRS 16, and IAS 41. Details of the amendments that are expected to be applicable to the Group are as follows:

- IFRS 9 Financial Instruments: clarifies the fees that an entity includes when assessing whether the terms of a new or modified financial liability are substantially different from the terms of the original financial liability. These fees include only those paid or received between the borrower and the lender, including fees paid or received by either the borrower or lender on the other's behalf. An entity applies the amendment to financial liabilities that are modified or exchanged on or after the beginning of the annual reporting period in which the entity first applies the amendment. The amendment is effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2022. Earlier application is permitted. The amendment is not expected to have a significant impact on the Group's financial statements.
- IFRS 16 Leases: removes the illustration of payments from the lessor relating to leasehold improvements in Illustrative Example 13 accompanying IFRS 16. This removes potential confusion regarding the treatment of lease incentives when applying IFRS 16.

2.4 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Business combinations

Business combinations are accounted for using the acquisition method. The consideration transferred is measured at the acquisition date fair value which is the sum of the acquisition date fair values of assets transferred by the Group, liabilities assumed by the Group to the former owner of the acquiree and the equity interests issued by the Group in exchange for control of the acquiree. For each business combination, the Group elects whether to measure the non-controlling interests in the acquiree that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to a proportionate share of net assets in the event of liquidation at fair value or at the proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. All other components of non-controlling interests are measured at fair value. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

The Group determines that it has acquired a business when the acquired set of activities and assets includes an input and a substantive process that together significantly contribute to the ability to create outputs.

When the Group acquires a business, it assesses the financial assets and liabilities assumed for appropriate classification and designation in accordance with the contractual terms, economic circumstances and pertinent conditions as at the acquisition date. This includes the separation of embedded derivatives in host contracts of the acquiree.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the acquisition date fair value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is remeasured to fair value at the acquisition date through the consolidated statement of profit or loss.

Any contingent consideration to be transferred by the acquirer is recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. Contingent consideration classified as an asset or liability is measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss. If the contingent consideration is not within the scope of IAS 39, it is measured in accordance with the appropriate IFRSs. Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not remeasured and subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity.

Goodwill is initially measured at cost, being the excess of the aggregate of the consideration transferred, the amount recognised for non-controlling interests and any fair value of the Group's previously held equity interests in the acquiree over the identifiable net assets acquired and liabilities assumed. If the sum of this consideration and other items is lower than the fair value of the net assets of the subsidiary acquired, the difference is, after reassessment, recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss as a gain on bargain purchase.

After initial recognition, goodwill is measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses. Goodwill is tested for impairment annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may be impaired. The Group performs its annual impairment test of goodwill as at 31 December. For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is, from the acquisition date, allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units, or groups of cash-generating units, that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination, irrespective of whether other assets or liabilities of the Group are assigned to those units or groups of units.

Impairment is determined by assessing the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit (group of cash-generating units) to which the goodwill relates. Where the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit (group of cash-generating units) is less than the carrying amount, an impairment loss is recognised. An impairment loss recognised for goodwill is not reversed in a subsequent period.

Where goodwill has been allocated to a cash-generating unit (or group of cash-generating units) and part of the operation within that unit is disposed of, the goodwill associated with the operation disposed of is included in the carrying amount of the operation when determining the gain or loss on the disposal. Goodwill disposed of in these circumstances is measured based on the relative value of the operation disposed of and the portion of the cash-generating unit retained.

(b) Related parties

A party is considered to be related to the Group if:

- (1) the party is a person or a close member of that person's family and that person
  - (i) has control or joint control over the Group;
  - (ii) has significant influence over the Group; or
  - (iii) is a member of the key management personnel of the Group or of a parent of the Group;

or

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2.4 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

(b) Related parties (continued)

- (2) the party is an entity where any of the following conditions applies:
- (i) the entity and the Group are members of the same group;
  - (ii) one entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or of a parent, subsidiary or fellow subsidiary of the other entity);
  - (iii) the entity and the Group are joint ventures of the same third party;
  - (iv) one entity is a joint venture of a third entity and the other entity is an associate of the third entity;
  - (v) the entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the Group or an entity related to the Group;
  - (vi) the entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in (1);
  - (vii) a person identified in (1)(i) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity); and
  - (viii) the entity, or any member of a group of which it is a part, provides key management personnel services to the Group or to the parent of the Group.

(c) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment comprise buildings, mining structures, mining rights, machinery and equipment, motor vehicles, exploration rights and construction in progress.

Exploration rights are capitalised and amortised over the term of the licence granted to the Group by the authorities.

When proved and probable coal reserves have been determined, costs incurred to develop coal mines are capitalised as part of the cost of the mining structures.

Buildings, mining structures, machinery and equipment, and motor vehicles are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses. Expenditures for routine repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred.

Mining rights are stated at cost less accumulated amortisation and any impairment losses. The costs of mining rights are initially capitalised when purchased. If proved and probable reserves are established for a property and it has been determined that a mineral property can be economically developed, costs are capitalised and are amortised upon production based on actual units of production over the estimated proved and probable reserves of the mines. For mining rights in which proved and probable reserves have not yet been established, the Group assesses the carrying value for impairment at the end of each reporting period. The Group's rights to extract minerals are contractually limited by time. However, the Group believes that it will be able to extend its licences.

Mining related buildings, mining structures and mining related machinery and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses. Those mining related assets for which proved and probable reserves have been established are depreciated upon production based on actual units of production over the estimated proved and probable reserves of the mines.

Reserve estimates are reviewed when information becomes available that indicates a reserve change is needed, or at a minimum once a year. Any material effect from changes in estimates is considered in the period the change occurs.

Depreciation for the following items is calculated on the straight-line basis over each asset's estimated useful life down to the estimated residual value of each asset.

Estimated useful lives are as follows:

Non-mining related buildings	15 – 35 years
Non-mining related machinery and equipment	5 – 15 years
Motor vehicles	5 – 8 years

Residual values, useful lives and the depreciation method are reviewed and, adjusted if appropriate, at each reporting date.

When properties are retired or otherwise disposed of, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the respective accounts and any profit or loss on disposition is recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss.

Construction in progress is carried at cost and is to be depreciated when placed into service over the estimated useful lives or units of production of those assets. Construction costs are capitalised as incurred. Interest is capitalised as incurred during the construction period.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 December 2020

Expenditure incurred after items of property, plant and equipment have been put into operation, such as repairs and maintenance, is normally charged to the consolidated statement of profit or loss in the period in which it is incurred. In situations where the recognition criteria are satisfied, the expenditure for a major inspection is capitalised in the carrying amount of the asset as a replacement. Where significant parts of property, plant and equipment are required to be replaced at intervals, the Group recognises such parts as individual assets with specific useful lives and depreciates them accordingly.

One or more items of property, plant and equipment may be acquired in exchange for a non-monetary asset or assets, or a combination of monetary and non-monetary assets. The cost of such an item of property, plant and equipment is measured at fair value unless (a) the exchange transaction lacks commercial substance or (b) the fair value of neither the asset received nor the asset given up is reliably measurable. The acquired item is measured in this way even if an entity cannot immediately derecognise the asset given up. If the acquired item is not measured at fair value, its cost is measured at the carrying amount of the asset given up.

The Group determines whether an exchange transaction has commercial substance by considering the extent to which its future cash flows are expected to change as a result of the transaction. An exchange transaction has commercial substance if: (a) the configuration (risk, timing and amount) of the cash flows of the asset received differs from the configuration of the cash flows of the asset transferred; or (b) the entity specific value of the portion of the entity's operations affected by the transaction changes as a result of the exchange; and (c) the difference in (a) or (b) is significant relative to the fair value of the assets exchanged.

The fair value of an asset is reliably measurable if (a) the variability in the range of reasonable fair value measurements is not significant for that asset or (b) the probabilities of the various estimates within the range can be reasonably assessed and used when measuring fair value. If an entity is able to measure reliably the fair value of either the asset received or the asset given up, then the fair value of the asset given up is used to measure the cost of the asset received unless the fair value of the asset received is more clearly evident.

(d) Fair value measurement

The Group measures derivative financial instruments and equity investments at fair value at the end of each reporting period. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either in the principal market for the asset or liability, or in the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability. The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Group. The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorised within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

- Level 1 – based on quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
- Level 2 – based on valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is observable, either directly or indirectly
- Level 3 – based on valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable

For assets and liabilities that are recognised in the financial statements on a recurring basis, the Group determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by reassessing categorisation (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 December 2020

2.4 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

(e) Exploration and evaluation costs

Exploration and evaluation assets include topographical and geological surveys, exploratory drilling, sampling and trenching and activities in relation to commercial and technical feasibility studies, and expenditure incurred to secure further mineralisation in existing coal bodies and to expand the capacity of a mine. Expenditure incurred prior to acquiring legal rights to explore an area is expensed as incurred.

Once the exploration right to explore has been acquired, exploration and evaluation expenditure is charged to the consolidated statement of profit or loss as incurred, unless a future economic benefit is more likely than not to be realised. Exploration and evaluation assets acquired in a business combination are initially recognised at fair value. They are subsequently stated at cost less accumulated impairment.

When it can be reasonably ascertained that a mining property is capable of commercial production, exploration and evaluation costs are transferred to tangible or intangible assets according to the nature of the exploration and evaluation assets. If any project is abandoned during the evaluation stage, the total expenditure thereon will be written off.

(f) Impairment of non-financial assets

Where an indication of impairment exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required (other than inventories, contract assets, deferred tax assets, financial assets, investment properties and non-current assets/a disposal group classified as held for sale), the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of the asset's or cash-generating unit's value in use and its fair value less costs of disposal, and is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets, in which case the recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

An impairment loss is recognised only if the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. An impairment loss is charged to the statement of profit or loss in the period in which it arises in those expense categories consistent with the function of the impaired asset.

An assessment is made at the end of each reporting period as to whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such an indication exists, the recoverable amount is estimated. A previously recognised impairment loss of an asset other than goodwill is reversed only if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount of that asset, but not to an amount higher than the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any depreciation/amortisation) had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. A reversal of such an impairment loss is credited to the statement of profit or loss in the period in which it arises, unless the asset is carried at a revalued amount, in which case the reversal of the impairment loss is accounted for in accordance with the relevant accounting policy for that revalued asset.

(g) Investments and other financial assets

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, as subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income, and fair value through profit or loss.

The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and the Group's business model for managing them. With the exception of trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient of not adjusting the effect of a significant financing component, the Group initially measures a financial asset at its fair value, plus in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs. Trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient are measured at the transaction price determined under IFRS 15 in accordance with the policies set out in Note 2.4(q) "Revenue recognition" below.

In order for a financial asset to be classified and measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income, it needs to give rise to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest ("SPPI") on the principal amount outstanding. Financial assets with cash flows that are not SPPI are classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss, irrespective of the business model.

The Group's business model for managing financial assets refers to how it manages its financial assets in order to generate cash flows. The business model determines whether cash flows will result from collecting contractual cash flows, selling the financial assets, or both. Financial assets classified and measured at amortised cost are held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows, while financial assets classified and measured at fair value through other comprehensive income are held within a business model with the objective of both holding to collect contractual cash flows and selling. Financial assets which are not held within the aforementioned business models are classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss.

Initial recognition and measurement (continued)

All regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on the trade date, that is, the date that the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the period generally established by regulation or convention in the marketplace.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial assets depends on their classification as follows:

Financial assets at amortised cost (debt instruments)

Financial assets at amortised cost are subsequently measured using the effective interest method and are subject to impairment. Gains and losses are recognised in the statement of profit or loss when the asset is derecognised, modified or impaired.

Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income (debt instruments)

For debt investments at fair value through other comprehensive income, interest income, foreign exchange revaluation and impairment losses or reversals are recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and computed in the same manner as for financial assets measured at amortised cost. The remaining fair value changes are recognised in other comprehensive income. Upon derecognition, the cumulative fair value change recognised in other comprehensive income is recycled to the consolidated statement of profit or loss.

Financial assets designated at fair value through other comprehensive income (equity investments)

Upon initial recognition, the Group can elect to classify irrevocably its equity investments as equity investments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income when they meet the definition of equity under IAS 32 Financial Instruments: Presentation and are not held for trading. The classification is determined on an instrument-by-instrument basis.

Gains and losses on these financial assets are never recycled to the consolidated statement of profit or loss. Dividends are recognised as other income in the consolidated statement of profit or loss when the right of payment has been established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the Group and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably, except when the Group benefits from such proceeds as a recovery of part of the cost of the financial asset, in which case, such gains are recorded in other comprehensive income. Equity investments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income are not subject to impairment assessment.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are carried in the statement of financial position at fair value with net changes in fair value recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

This category includes derivative instruments and equity investments which the Group had not irrevocably elected to classify at fair value through other comprehensive income. Dividends on equity investments classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are also recognised as other income in consolidated the statement of profit or loss when the right of payment has been established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the Group and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

(h) Derecognition of financial assets

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognised (i.e., removed from the Group's consolidated statement of financial position) when:

- the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired; or
- the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a "pass-through" arrangement; and either (a) the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

When the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass-through arrangement, it evaluates if, and to what extent, it has retained the risk and rewards of ownership of the asset. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset nor transferred control of the asset, the Group continues to recognise the transferred asset to the extent of the Group's continuing involvement. In that case, the Group also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Group has retained.

Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration that the Group could be required to repay.

(i) Impairment of financial assets

The Group recognises an allowance for expected credit losses (“ECLs”) for all debt instruments not held at fair value through profit or loss. ECLs are based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at an approximation of the original effective interest rate. The expected cash flows will include cash flows from the sale of collateral held or other credit enhancements that are integral to the contractual terms.

General approach

ECLs are recognised in two stages. For credit exposures for which there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, ECLs are provided for credit losses that result from default events that are possible within the next 12 months (a 12-month ECL). For those credit exposures for which there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, a loss allowance is required for credit losses expected over the remaining life of the exposure, irrespective of the timing of the default (a lifetime ECL).

At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether the credit risk on a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition. When making the assessment, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition and considers reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort, including historical and forward-looking information.

For debt investments at fair value through other comprehensive income, the Group applies the low credit risk simplification. At each reporting date, the Group evaluates whether the debt investments are considered to have low credit risk using all reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort. In making that evaluation, the Group reassesses the external credit ratings of the debt investments. In addition, the Group considers that there has been a significant increase in credit risk when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due.

The Group considers a financial asset in default when contractual payments are 90 days past due. However, in certain cases, the Group may also consider a financial asset to be in default when internal or external information indicates that the Group is unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by the Group. A financial asset is written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovering the contractual cash flows.

Debt investments at fair value through other comprehensive income and financial assets at amortised cost are subject to impairment under the general approach and they are classified within the following stages for measurement of ECLs except for trade receivables which apply the simplified approach as detailed below:

- Stage 1 – Financial instruments for which credit risk has not increased significantly since initial recognition and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to 12-month ECLs
- Stage 2 – Financial instruments for which credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition but that are not credit-impaired financial assets and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs
- Stage 3 – Financial assets that are credit-impaired at the reporting date (but that are not purchased or originated credit-impaired) and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs

Simplified approach

For trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or when the Group applies the practical expedient of not adjusting the effect of a significant financing component, the Group applies the simplified approach in calculating ECLs. Under the simplified approach, the Group does not track changes in credit risk, but instead recognises a loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date. The Group has established a provision matrix that is based on its historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

(j) Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, loans and borrowings, payables, or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate.

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

The Group's financial liabilities include trade and other payables, an amount due to the ultimate holding company, derivative financial instruments and interest-bearing bank and other borrowings.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification as follows:

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 December 2020

Financial liabilities at amortised cost (loans and borrowings)

After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest rate method unless the effect of discounting would be immaterial, in which case they are stated at cost. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the effective interest rate amortisation process.

Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the effective interest rate. The effective interest rate amortisation is included in finance costs in the statement of profit or loss.

Financial guarantee contracts

Financial guarantee contracts issued by the Group are those contracts that require a payment to be made to reimburse the holder for a loss it incurs because the specified debtor fails to make a payment when due in accordance with the terms of a debt instrument. A financial guarantee contract is recognised initially as a liability at its fair value, adjusted for transaction costs that are directly attributable to the issuance of the guarantee. Subsequent to initial recognition, the Group measures the financial guarantee contracts at the higher of: (i) the ECL allowance determined in accordance with the policy as set out in “Impairment of financial assets”; and (ii) the amount initially recognised less, when appropriate, the cumulative amount of income recognised.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged, cancelled or expires.

When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a derecognition of the original liability and a recognition of a new liability, and the difference between the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss.

(k) Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the consolidated statement of financial position if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

(l) Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined on the weight-average method and, in the case of work in progress and finished goods, comprises direct materials, direct labour and an appropriate proportion of overheads. Net realisable value is based on estimated selling prices less any estimated costs to be incurred to completion and disposal. Major types of inventories include:

- Spare parts and consumables
- Coal

(m) Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and demand deposits, and short-term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash, are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, and have a short maturity of generally within three months when acquired, less bank overdrafts which are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the Group's cash management.

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of financial position, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and at banks, including term deposits, and assets similar in nature to cash, which are not restricted as to use.

(n) Employee benefits

Pension obligations

The Group contributes on a monthly basis to various defined contribution retirement benefit plans administered by the PRC government. The relevant government agencies undertake to assume the retirement benefit obligation payable to all existing and future retired employees under these plans and the Group has no further obligation for post-retirement benefits beyond the contributions made. Further information is set out in Note 10.

Housing funds

All full-time employees of the Group are entitled to participate in various government-sponsored housing funds. The Group contributes on a monthly basis to these funds based on certain percentages of the salaries of the employees. The Group's liability in respect of these funds is limited to the contributions payable in each year.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 December 2020

2.4 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

(o) Asset retirement obligations

The Group's legal or constructive obligations associated with the retirement of non-financial assets are recognised at fair value at the time the obligations are incurred and if it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, and a reasonable estimate of fair value can be made. Upon initial recognition of a liability, a corresponding amount is capitalised as part of the carrying amount of the related property, plant and equipment. Asset retirement obligations are regularly reviewed by management and are revised for changes in future estimated costs and regulatory requirements. Changes in the estimated timing of retirement or future estimated costs are dealt prospectively by recording an adjustment against the carrying value of the provision and a corresponding adjustment to property and equipment. Depreciation of the capitalised asset retirement cost is generally determined on a unit-of-production basis. Accretion of the asset retirement obligation is recognised over time and generally will escalate over the life of the production asset, typically as production declines. Accretion is included in the finance costs in the consolidated statement of profit or loss. Any difference between the recorded obligation and the actual costs of reclamation is recorded in the consolidated statement of profit or loss in the period the obligation is settled.

(p) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds. Borrowing costs directly relating to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalised as part of the cost of the respective assets. The capitalisation of such borrowing costs ceases when the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

(q) Revenue recognition

Revenue from contracts with customers

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognised when control of goods or services is transferred to the customers at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services.

When the consideration in a contract includes a variable amount, the amount of consideration is estimated to which the Group will be entitled in exchange for transferring the goods or services to the customer. The variable consideration is estimated at contract inception and constrained until it is highly probable that a significant revenue reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur when the associated uncertainty with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved.

When the contract contains a financing component which provides the customer with a significant benefit of financing the transfer of goods or services to the customer for more than one year, revenue is measured at the present value of the amount receivable, discounted using the discount rate that would be reflected in a separate financing transaction between the Group and the customer at contract inception. When the contract contains a financing component which provides the Group with a significant financial benefit for more than one year, revenue recognised under the contract includes the interest expense accreted on the contract liability under the effective interest method. For a contract where the period between the payment by the customer and the transfer of the promised goods or services is one year or less, the transaction price is not adjusted for the effects of a significant financing component, using the practical expedient in IFRS 15.

(i) Sale of coal

Revenue from the sale of coal is recognised at the point in time when control of the asset is transferred to the customer, generally on delivery of the products.

The coal is sold on its own in separately identified contracts with customers.

(ii) Coal trading

The Group provides procurement services on coal with specified high calorific value as an agent. Revenue under agency arrangements is recognised on a net base, and at a point in time, upon receipt by the customer of the coal with specified high calorific value.

Other income

Interest income is recognised on an accrual basis using the effective interest method by applying the rate that exactly discounts the estimated future cash receipts over the expected life of the financial instrument or a shorter period, when appropriate, to the net carrying amount of the financial asset.

(r) Contract assets

A contract asset is the right to consideration in exchange for goods or services transferred to the customer. If the Group performs by transferring goods or services to a customer before the customer pays consideration or before payment is due, a contract asset is recognised for the earned consideration that is conditional. Contract assets are subject to impairment assessment, details of which are included in the accounting policies for impairment of financial assets.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 December 2020

2.4 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

(s) Contract liabilities

A contract liability is recognised when a payment is received or a payment is due (whichever is earlier) from a customer before the Group transfers the related goods or services. Contract liabilities are recognised as revenue when the Group performs under the contract (i.e., transfers control of the related goods or services to the customer).

(t) Income taxes

Income tax comprises current and deferred tax. Income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss, either in other comprehensive income or loss or directly in equity.

Current tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantially enacted, by the reporting date, taking into consideration interpretations and practices prevailing in the countries where the Group operates and generates taxable income.

Deferred tax is provided, using the liability method, on all temporary differences at the reporting date between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- when the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- in respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, where the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, and carryforward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses, to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carryforward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised, except:

- where the deferred tax assets relating to the deductible temporary differences arise from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- in respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, deferred tax assets are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at each reporting date and are recognised to the extent that it is probable that it has become probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if and only if the Group has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets and current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the same taxable entity or different taxable entities which intend either to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered.

(u) Foreign currencies

The functional currency of substantially all the operations of the Group is the CNY, the national currency of the PRC. Transactions denominated in currencies other than the CNY recorded by the entities of the Group are initially recorded using their respective functional currency rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in other currencies have been translated into CNY at the functional currency rates of exchange prevailing at the end of the reporting period. The resulting exchange gains or losses are credited or charged to the consolidated statement of profit or loss. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date of the initial transactions.

The financial statements of certain overseas subsidiaries with a functional currency other than the CNY have been translated into CNY. The assets and liabilities of these entities have been translated using the exchange rates prevailing at the reporting date and their consolidated statements of profit or loss have been translated using the weighted average exchange rate for the year. Resulting translation adjustments are reported as a separate component of other comprehensive income.

On disposal of a foreign operation, the deferred cumulative amount recognised in equity relating to that particular foreign operation is recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 December 2020

2.4 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

(v) Provisions

A provision is recognised when a present obligation (legal or constructive) has arisen as a result of a past event and it is probable that a future outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, provided that a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

When the effect of discounting is material, the amount recognised for a provision is the present value at the end of the reporting period of the future expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation. The increase in the discounted present value amount arising from the passage of time is included in finance costs in the consolidated statement of profit or loss.

(w) Leases

The Group assesses at contract inception whether a contract is, or contains, a lease. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

Group as a lessee

The Group applies a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases, except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets. The Group recognises lease liabilities to make lease payments and right-of-use assets representing the right to use the underlying assets.

At inception or on reassessment of a contract that contains a lease component and a non-lease component, the Group adopts the practical expedient not to separate the non-lease component and to account for the lease component and the associated non-lease component (e.g., property management services for leases of properties) as a single lease component.

(1) Right-of-use assets

Right-of-use assets are recognised at the commencement date of the lease (that is the date the underlying asset is available for use). Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The cost of right-of-use assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognised, initial direct costs incurred, and lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received. Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease terms and the estimated useful lives of the assets as follows:

Buildings	2 to 5 years
Machinery and equipment	3 to 10 years
Leasehold land	15 to 30 years

(1) Right-of-use assets (continued)

If ownership of the leased asset transfers to the Group by the end of the lease term or the cost reflects the exercise of a purchase option, depreciation is calculated using the estimated useful life of the asset.

(2) Lease liabilities

Lease liabilities are recognised at the commencement date of the lease at the present value of lease payments to be made over the lease term. The lease payments include fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, and amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees. The lease payments also include the exercise price of a purchase option reasonably certain to be exercised by the Group and payments of penalties for termination of a lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising the option to terminate the lease. The variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as an expense in the period in which the event or condition that triggers the payment occurs.

In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses its incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date because the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is remeasured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term, a change in lease payments (e.g., a change to future lease payments resulting from a change in an index or rate) or a change in assessment of an option to purchase the underlying asset.

(3) Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to its short-term leases of machinery and equipment (that is those leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option). It also applies the recognition exemption for leases of low-value assets to leases of office equipment and laptop computers that are considered to be of low value.

Lease payments on short-term leases and leases of low-value assets are recognised as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 December 2020

Group as a lessor

When the Group acts as a lessor, it classifies at lease inception (or when there is a lease modification) each of its leases as either an operating lease or a finance lease.

Leases in which the Group does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an asset are classified as operating leases. When a contract contains lease and non-lease components, the Group allocates the consideration in the contract to each component on a relative stand-alone selling price basis. Rental income is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease terms and is included in revenue in the statement of profit or loss due to its operating nature. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating and arranging an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognised over the lease term on the same basis as rental income. Contingent rents are recognised as revenue in the period in which they are earned.

Leases that transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset to the lessee are accounted for as finance leases. At the commencement date, the cost of the leased asset is capitalised at the present value of the lease payments and related payments (including the initial direct costs), and presented as a receivable at an amount equal to the net investment in the lease.

(x) Dividends

Final dividends are recognised as a liability when they are approved by the shareholders in a general meeting.

Interim dividends are simultaneously proposed and declared, because the Company's memorandum and articles of association grant the directors the authority to declare interim dividends. Consequently, interim dividends are recognised immediately as a liability when they are proposed and declared.

(y) Government grants

Government grants are recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position initially when there is reasonable assurance that they will be received and that the Group will comply with the conditions attaching to them. Grants that compensate the Group for expenses incurred are recognised as income in profit or loss on a systematic basis in the same periods in which the expenses are incurred. Grants that compensate the Group for the cost of an asset are initially recognised as deferred income and consequently are effectively recognised in profit or loss over the useful life of the asset by way of reduced depreciation expense.

(z) Investments in associates and joint ventures

An associate is an entity in which the Group has a long term interest of generally not less than 20% of the equity voting rights and over which it is in a position to exercise significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee, but is not control or joint control over those policies.

A joint venture is a type of joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the joint venture. Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require the unanimous consent of the parties sharing control.

The Group's investments in associates and joint ventures are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at the Group's share of net assets under the equity method of accounting, less any impairment losses. Adjustments are made to bring into line any dissimilar accounting policies that may exist. The Group's share of the post-acquisition results and other comprehensive income of associates and joint ventures is included in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and consolidated other comprehensive income, respectively. In addition, when there has been a change recognised directly in the equity of the associate or joint venture, the Group recognises its share of any changes, when applicable, in the consolidated statement of changes in equity. Unrealised gains and losses resulting from transactions between the Group and its associates or joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of the Group's investments in the associates or joint ventures, except where unrealised losses provide evidence of an impairment of the assets transferred. Goodwill arising from the acquisition of associates or joint ventures is included as part of the Group's investments in associates or joint ventures.

If an investment in an associate becomes an investment in a joint venture or vice versa, the retained interest is not remeasured. Instead, the investment continues to be accounted for under the equity method. In all other cases, upon loss of significant influence over the associate or joint control over the joint venture, the Group measures and recognises any retained investment at its fair value. Any difference between the carrying amount of the associate or joint venture upon loss of significant influence or joint control and the fair value of the retained investment and proceeds from disposal is recognised in profit or loss.

When an investment in an associate or a joint venture is classified as held for sale, it is accounted for in accordance with IFRS 5 Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations.

2.5 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES

The preparation of the Group's financial statements in conformity with IFRSs requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and their accompanying disclosures, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of the asset or liability affected in future periods.

Judgements

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgements, apart from those involving estimations, which have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements.

(i) Principal versus agent consideration

The Group has certain contracts with customers to acquire, on their behalf, coal with specified high calorific value provided by third-party suppliers. Under these contracts, the Group provides procurement services. The Group determined that it does not control the goods before they are transferred to customers, and it does not have the ability to direct the use of the coal or obtain benefits from the coal. The following factors indicate that the Group does not control the goods before they are being transferred to customers. Therefore, the Group determined that it is an agent in these contracts.

- The Group does not have inventory risk before or after the coal with specified high calorific value has been transferred to the customer as the coal is shipped by supplier directly to customer, and the third-party supplier bears all the consequences of price reduction, penalty or rejection if the quantity or quality of coal supplied does not meet the requirements.
- The Group has no discretion in establishing the price for the coal with specified high calorific value. The amount of Group's gross profit is pre-determined based on the fixed fee signed in the contract.

In addition, the Group concluded that it transfers control over its services, at a point in time, upon receipt by the customer of the coal with specified high calorific value, because this is when the customer benefits from the Group's agency service.

The Group recognised revenue under agency arrangements on a net base at an amount of CNY0.2 million for the year ended 31 December 2020 (2019: CNY0.7 million).

2.5 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES (continued)

Estimates and assumptions

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are described below.

(i) Impairment of property, plant and equipment

Long-lived assets to be held and used, such as property, plant and equipment, are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amounts may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In estimating the recoverable amounts of assets, various assumptions, including future cash flows to be associated with the non-current assets and discount rates, are made. If future events do not correspond to such assumptions, the recoverable amounts will need to be revised, and this may have an impact on the Group's results of operations or financial position.

(ii) Unit-of-production depreciation for mining-related assets

The Group determines the depreciation and/or amortisation of mining-related assets by the actual units of production over the estimated reserves of the mines. Further details about the reserve estimates are included in Note 2.5 (iv) below.

(iii) Useful lives of non-mining related property, plant and equipment

The Group's management determines the estimated useful lives and related depreciation charges for its non-mining related property, plant and equipment. This estimate is based on the historical experience of the actual useful lives of non-mining related property, plant and equipment of similar nature and functions. It could change significantly as a result of technical innovation and competitor's action in response to severe industry cycles. Management will increase the depreciation charges where useful lives are less than previously estimated lives, or it will write off or write down technically obsolete or non-strategic assets that have been abandoned or sold.

(iv) Reserve estimates

Proved and probable coal reserve estimates are estimates of the amount of coal that can be economically and legally extracted from the Group's mining properties. In determining the estimates, recent production and technical information of each mine will be considered.

Fluctuations in factors including the price of coal, production costs and transportation costs of coal, a variation on recovery rates or unforeseen geological or geotechnical perils may render it necessary to revise the estimates of coal reserves.

Because the economic assumptions used to estimate reserve changes from period to period, and because additional geological data is generated during the course of operations, estimates of reserves may change from period to period. Changes in reported reserves may affect the Group's financial results and financial position in a number of ways, including the following:

- The carrying values of assets may be affected due to change in estimated future cash flows;
- Depreciation, depletion and amortisation charged to the consolidated statement of profit or loss may change where such charges are determined by the units of production basis, or where the useful economic lives of assets change;
- Asset retirement obligations may change where changes in estimated reserves affect expectations about the timing or cost of these activities; and
- The carrying value of deferred tax assets may change due to changes in estimates of the likely recovery of the tax benefits.

(v) Provision for expected credit losses on trade receivables

The Group uses a provision matrix to calculate ECLs for trade receivables. The provision rates are based on days past due for groupings of various customer segments that have similar loss patterns (i.e., by geography, product type, customer type and rating, and coverage by letters of credit and other forms of credit insurance).

The provision matrix is initially based on the Group's historical observed default rates. The Group will calibrate the matrix to adjust the historical credit loss experience with forward-looking information. For instance, if forecast economic conditions (i.e., gross domestic product) are expected to deteriorate over the next year which can lead to an increased number of defaults in the manufacturing sector, the historical default rates are adjusted. At each reporting date, the historical observed default rates are updated and changes in the forward-looking estimates are analysed.

The assessment of the correlation among historical observed default rates, forecast economic conditions and ECLs is a significant estimate. The amount of ECLs is sensitive to changes in circumstances and forecast economic conditions. The Group's historical credit loss experience and forecast of economic conditions may also not be representative of a customer's actual default in the future. The information about the ECLs on the Group's trade receivables is disclosed in Note 21 to the financial statements.

(vi) Deferred tax assets

Deferred tax assets are recognised for unused tax losses and other temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deferred tax assets can be recovered. Significant management judgement is required to determine the amount of deferred tax assets that can be recognised, based upon the likely timing and level of future taxable profits together with future tax planning strategies. Further details are contained in Note 13 to the financial statements.

3. OPERATING SEGMENT INFORMATION

During the year ended 31 December 2020, the Group had only one operating segment: the construction and development of anthracite coal mines, extraction and sale of anthracite coal, and trading of anthracite coal.

For management purposes, the Group operates in one business unit based on its products, and has only one reportable segment. The Group conducts its principal operation in Mainland China. The Group's management monitors the operating results of its business unit for the purpose of making decisions about resource allocation and performance assessment.

Geographic information

The Group's revenue from external customers is derived solely from its operation in Mainland China, and no non-current assets of the Group are located outside Mainland China.

Information about major customers

During the year ended 31 December 2020, revenue derived from sales to two customers accounted for 37.4% and 15.3% of the consolidated revenue, respectively. During the year ended 31 December 2019, revenue derived from sales to two customers accounted for 44.6% and 11.4% of the consolidated revenue, respectively.

4. DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

(a) Discontinued operation of Gouchang Coal Mine

Gouchang Coal Mine is a coal mine located in Guizhou Province, the PRC, which is wholly owned by Nayong Gouchang Coal Mining Co., Ltd., a subsidiary of the Company. The operation of Gouchang Coal Mine has been suspended since March 2013 pending the acquisition of a nearby coal mine and Gouchang Coal Mine achieving certain production targets in accordance with Guizhou Province's coal mine consolidation policy. The Group therefore planned to close down Gouchang Coal Mine in accordance with the second batch of the restructuring proposal approved by the Energy Bureau of Guizhou Province* (貴州省能源局) and the Leading Group Office of Guizhou Province on Coal Enterprises Consolidation* (貴州省煤礦企業兼併重組工作領導小組辦公室) on 5 January 2016. In the year of 2020, substantially all the work at Gouchang Coal Mine had ceased; and therefore, the operating results have been reclassified to a discontinued operation for the purpose of preparing the consolidated statement of profit or loss.

The results of Gouchang Coal Mine for the years ended 31 December 2020 and 2019 are presented below:

(b) Discontinued operation of Guizhou Nayong Dayuan Coal Mining Co., Ltd. (“Guizhou Dayuan”)

On 24 May 2019, Guizhou Puxin Energy Co., Ltd. (“Guizhou Puxin”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Group, entered into an agreement with Guiyang Baoshun Energy Co., Ltd. (“Baoshun”), an independent third party, to dispose of its entire equity interest in Guizhou Dayuan, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Guizhou Puxin for an aggregate cash consideration of CNY55.0 million. Guizhou Dayuan is mainly engaged in the extraction and sale of anthracite coal in Nayong County, Guizhou Province, the PRC. The consideration shall be paid by Baoshun in various tranches upon the satisfaction of the subsequent conditions. During the year of 2019, Guizhou Puxin received tranches of CNY50.0 million from Baoshun. Up to 31 December 2020, the transaction was not yet completed, and Guizhou Dayuan was classified as a disposal group held for sale and as a discontinued operation.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 December 2020

13. INCOME TAX FROM CONTINUING OPERATIONS AND DEFERRED TAX

The Company is a limited liability company incorporated in the BVI and conducts its primary business through its subsidiaries in Mainland China. It also has an intermediate holding company in Hong Kong. Under the current laws of the BVI, the Company incorporated in the BVI is not subject to tax on income or capital gains. The Hong Kong profits tax rate was 16.5% during the year ended 31 December 2020 (2019: 16.5%). The Company's Hong Kong subsidiary has both Hong Kong sourced and non-Hong Kong sourced income. The latter is not subject to Hong Kong profits tax and the related expenses are non-tax-deductible. For the Hong Kong sourced income, no provision for Hong Kong profits tax was made as this operation sustained tax losses during the years ended 31 December 2020 and 2019. Furthermore, there are no withholding taxes in Hong Kong on the remittance of dividends.

Under the Law of the PRC on the corporate income tax ("CIT") and Implementation Regulation of the Corporate Income Tax Law (the "CIT Law") collectively, the tax rate applicable for PRC group entities is 25% (2019: 25%).

Under the prevailing CIT Law and its relevant regulations, any dividends paid by the Company's PRC subsidiaries from their earnings derived after 1 January 2008 to the Company's Hong Kong subsidiary are subject to PRC dividend withholding tax of 5% or 10%, depending on the applicability of the Sino-Hong Kong tax treaty.

The current and deferred components of income tax (credit)/expense from continuing operations are as follows:

	2020 CNY'000	2019 CNY'000
Current – Mainland China	17,610	40,066
Deferred – Mainland China	(58,528)	(22,530)
	(40,918)	17,536

A reconciliation of the income taxes from continuing operations computed at the PRC statutory tax rate of 25% to the actual income tax (credit)/charge is as follows:

	2020 CNY'000	2019 CNY'000
Loss before income tax from continuing operations	(387,851)	(58,299)
Tax at the statutory tax rate of 25%	(96,963)	(14,575)

Classification in the consolidated statement of financial position:
Deferred tax assets	41,497	9,527
Deferred tax liabilities	(62,092)	(88,650)

In assessing the recoverability of the Group's deferred tax assets, management has performed a detailed assessment on the available taxable temporary differences relating to the same taxation authority and the same taxable entity, which will result in taxable amounts against which the deductible temporary differences and unused tax losses can be utilised before they expire. In addition, management has also performed a detailed assessment on these coal mining subsidiaries' profitability based on their production plans, product mix, forecasted selling prices, and the related production and operational costs, of which strong profits are expected.

Accordingly, management considered it is probable that the Group, in future, will earn sufficient taxable profits to utilise these coal mining subsidiaries' deductible temporary differences and unused tax losses before they expire and as such, the related deferred tax assets are recognised.

As at 31 December 2020, certain mining rights with a carrying amount of CNY545.6 million (31 December 2019: CNY722.6 million) were pledged to secure bank loans with a carrying amount of CNY1,734.3 million (31 December 2019: CNY1,729.5 million) (Note 27).

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

16. PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT (continued)

As at 31 December 2020, certain machinery and equipment with a carrying amount of CNY36.5 million (31 December 2019: Nil) and certain buildings with a carrying amount of CNY7.6 million (31 December 2019: Nil) were pledged to secure bank loans with a carrying amount of CNY20.0 million (31 December 2019: Nil) (Note 27).

As at 31 December 2020, certain buildings with a carrying amount totalling CNY86.0 million (31 December 2019: CNY74.0 million) were without title certificates. The Group has obtained the relevant confirmation letters issued by the local authorities confirming that they will not impose any penalties in connection with the construction of these buildings, and that the Group may continue to use these buildings in accordance with the current use. The Directors are of the view that the Group was entitled to lawfully and validly occupy and use the above-mentioned buildings. The Directors are also of the opinion that the aforesaid matter do not have any significant impact on the Group's financial position as at the end of the year.

Exchanges of assets

As at 4 December 2020, Guizhou Puxin received an amended new mining right permit of Liujiaba Coal Mine issued by Department of Natural Resources of Guizhou Province ("Exchange of assets"). According to the new mining right permit, the Department of Natural Resources of Guizhou Province adjusted part of the mining area of Liujiaba Coal Mine in order to facilitate better urban and regional planning. A land area of 1.4339km<sup>2</sup> of the original mining area ("Assets Given Up"), which overlapped with urban planning, has been cut out and replaced by a new piece of reserved land with a net area (after netting out of empty area) of 0.6946km<sup>2</sup> ("Assets Received").

The transaction passes the "commercial substance" test since the risk, timing and amount of the cash flows of the Assets Received differ from the configuration of the cash flows of the Assets Given Up.

The Assets Received was measured at fair value amounting to CNY101.5 million of the Assets Given Up according to valuation report prepared by a third party valuation expert.

Impairment for individual assets

As a result of the Exchange of assets, the property, plant and equipment located in the original mining area cannot be used any more, which led to impairment losses for property, plant and equipment of CNY85.5 million (2019: Nil) recognised in profit or loss.

Impairment tests for CGUs

When any indicators of impairment are identified, property, plant and equipment are reviewed for impairment based on each CGU, being an individual coal mine or entity. The carrying values of these individual CGUs were compared to the recoverable amount of the CGUs, which were based predominately on value-in-use.

Impairment tests for CGUs (continued)

In 2020, impairment losses for property, plant and equipment of Liujiaba Coal Mine amounting to CNY160.7 million (2019: Nil) were recognised. The recoverable amount of such CGU was CNY454.6 million as at 31 December 2020. Factors leading to the impairment are mainly related to the higher production cost.

Value-in-use calculations use pre-tax cash flow projections based on the 2021 financial budgets approved by management and are extrapolated using the same cash flow projections of the remaining years with changes being made to reflect the estimated changes in future market or economic conditions. Other key assumptions applied in the impairment testing include the future sales volume, coal price and operating cost. Management determined these key assumptions based on past performance and their expectations on market development. Further, the Group adopts a pre-tax and non-inflation rate of ranging from 9.66% to 9.93% (2019: 9.62% to 9.64%) as discount rate that reflects specific risks related to the CGUs. The assumptions above are used in analysing the recoverable amounts of the CGUs within operating segments. These estimates and judgments may be significantly affected by unexpected changes in the future market or economic conditions.

17. LEASES

(a) Right-of-use assets

The carrying amounts of the Group's right-of-use assets and the movements during the year are as follows:

	Leasehold land CNY'000	Machinery and equipment CNY'000	Buildings CNY'000	Total CNY'000
As at 1 January 2019	–	124,567	2,281	126,848

* In December 2020, the Department of Natural Resources of Guizhou Province adjusted part of the mining area of Liujiaba Coal Mine in order to facilitate better urban and regional planning (Note 16). As a result, the impairment of right-of-use assets for Liujiaba Coal Mine amounting to CNY1.1 million (2019: Nil) for the year ended 31 December 2020 was recognised, which was related to prepaid land lease payments located in the original mining area.

	136,391	97,708
Bills receivable	29,504	29,179
	165,895	126,887

A credit period of up to three months is granted to customers with an established trading history, otherwise, sales on cash terms or payment in advance are required. Trade receivables are non-interest-bearing.

Trade receivables of CNY123.7 million (31 December 2019: Nil) were pledged as security for short-term loans of CNY100.0 million (31 December 2019: Nil) as at 31 December 2020 (Note 27).

Bills receivable are bills of exchange with maturity of less than one year, and management considers the probability of default as minimal.

An ageing analysis of the trade receivables as at the end of the year, based on the invoice date and net of loss allowance, is as follows:

	2020 CNY' 000	2019 CNY' 000
Within 3 months	58,097	46,844
3 to 6 months	9,169	34,001

At the beginning of the year	47,912	47,294
Impairment losses, net	7,406	618
At the end of the year	55,318	47,912

21. TRADE AND BILLS RECEIVABLES (continued)

An impairment analysis is performed at each reporting date using a provision matrix to measure expected credit losses. The provision rates are based on days past due for groupings of various customer segments with similar loss patterns. The calculation reflects the probability-weighted outcome, the time value of money and reasonable and supportable information that is available at the reporting date about past events, current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions. Generally, trade receivables are written off if the Group is satisfied that recovery of the amount is remote.

The Group applies the simplified approach to the provision for expected credit losses prescribed by IFRS 9, which permits the use of lifetime expected loss provision for all trade receivables. To measure the expected credit loss on trade receivables, trade receivables have been grouped based on shared credit risk characteristics and the ageing.

Set out below is the information about the credit risk exposure on the Group's trade receivables using a provision matrix:

As at 31 December 2020

22. PREPAYMENTS AND OTHER RECEIVABLES (continued)

The movements in provision for impairment of prepayments and other receivables are as follows:

	2020 CNY' 000	2019 CNY' 000
Current:
At the beginning of the year	4,154	5,633
Impairment losses recognised	3,394	–
Reclassified to assets of a disposal group classified as held for sale	–	(1,479)
Sub-total	7,548	4,154
Non-current:
At the beginning of the year	3,012	3,704
Impairment losses recognised	501	–
Reclassified to assets of a disposal group classified as held for sale	–	(692)
Sub-total	3,513	3,012
At the end of the year	11,061	7,166

Where applicable upon financial assets above, an impairment analysis is performed at each reporting date by considering the probability of default by applying a loss rate approach with reference to the historical loss record of the Group. The loss rate is adjusted to reflect the current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions, as appropriate. For staff advances, deposits and others, management considers the probability of default to be minimal. Except for the separate item of prepayments already impaired, the financial assets included in the above balances relate to receivables for which there was no recent history of default, and no impairment was provided during the year.

23. FINANCIAL ASSETS AT FAIR VALUE THROUGH PROFIT OR LOSS

	2020 CNY' 000	2019 CNY' 000
Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss
Wealth management products	6,412	5,019
	6,412	5,019

Wealth management products were mainly investments in financial instruments issued by an investment company which had no guaranteed returns. The fair values of financial assets at fair value through profit or loss have been calculated by discounting the expected future cash flows using rates currently available for instruments with similar terms, credit risk and remaining maturities. They were mandatorily classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss as their contractual cash flows are not solely payments of principal and interest.

(i) Pledged deposits mainly include deposits of CNY40.0 million (31 December 2019: CNY116.0 million) held as security for bank bills, a deposit of CNY51.0 million (31 December 2019: Nil) held as security for bank loans and restricted bank deposits frozen due to a lawsuit of CNY1.5 million (31 December 2019: Nil) as at 31 December 2020.

Deposits and cash and cash equivalents are denominated in the following currencies:

	2020 CNY' 000	2019 CNY' 000
CNY	121,713	153,463
Hong Kong dollar	324	4,954
	122,037	158,417

Cash and cash equivalents are principally CNY-denominated deposits placed with banks in the PRC. The CNY is not freely convertible into other currencies, however, under Mainland China's Foreign Exchange Control Regulations and Administration of Settlement, Sale and Payment of Foreign Exchange Regulations, the Group is permitted to exchange CNY for other currencies through banks authorised to conduct foreign exchange business.

Cash at banks earns interest at floating rates based on daily bank deposit rates. Short-term time deposits are made for varying periods of between one day and three months depending on the immediate cash requirements of the Group, and earn interest at respective short-term deposit rates. The bank balances and pledged deposits are deposited with creditworthy banks with no recent history of default.

- (i) The related party transactions constitute connected transactions or continuing connected transactions as defined in Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.
- (ii) On 1 July 2016, the Company and CHNR, a related company which is controlled by the controlling shareholder of the Group, signed the office sharing agreement with Anka, a Hong Kong private company that is owned by certain Directors. Pursuant to the agreement, the office premises of 119 square meters were shared by the Company, and 184 square meters were shared by CHNR. The agreement also provided that the Company and CHNR shared certain costs and expenses in connection with their use of the office, in addition to some of the accounting and secretarial services and day-to-day office administration provided by Anka. In 2018, Anka's lease with the unrelated landlord was extended for two years, from 1 July 2018 to 30 June 2020. Besides, Anka has signed new contract with the unrelated landlord on 1 July 2020 for two years to 30 June 2022.
- (iii) Longfei, an associate, provides material and equipment maintenance services for the Group.
- (iv) On 1 January 2019, Shenzhen Chixin Information and Consulting Co., Ltd., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Group, entered into an office sharing leasing agreement with Feishang Enterprise. Pursuant to the agreement, the office premises of 40 square meters were shared by the Company. The agreement will expire in September 2021.

The directors of the Company are of the opinion that the above transactions with related parties were conducted in the ordinary course of business and on normal commercial terms or in accordance with the agreements governing such transactions.

37. TRANSFERS OF FINANCIAL ASSETS

Transferred financial assets that are derecognised in their entirety

At 31 December 2020, the Group endorsed certain bills receivable accepted by banks in Mainland China to certain of its suppliers in order to settle the trade payables due to these suppliers with a carrying amount in aggregate of CNY559.3 million (2019: CNY604.3 million) and factored certain bills receivable accepted by banks in Mainland China with a carrying amount in aggregate of CNY299.9 million (2019: CNY286.9 million) (the "Derecognised Bills"). The Derecognised Bills have a maturity from one month to one year at the end of the reporting period. In accordance with the Law of Negotiable Instruments in the PRC, the holders of the Derecognised Bills have a right of recourse against the Group if the banks in Mainland China default (the "Continuing Involvement"). In the opinion of the Directors, the Group has transferred substantially all risks and rewards relating to the Derecognised Bills. Accordingly, it has derecognised the full carrying amounts of the Derecognised Bills and the associated trade payables. The maximum exposure to loss from the Group's Continuing Involvement in the Derecognised Bills and the undiscounted cash flows to repurchase the Derecognised Bills is equal to their carrying amounts. In the opinion of the Directors, the fair values of the Group's Continuing Involvement in the Derecognised Bills are not significant.

During the year, the Group has recognised finance cost on the date of transfer of the Derecognised Bills at an amount of CNY6.9 million (2019: CNY12.1 million). No gains or losses were recognised from the Continuing Involvement, both during the year or cumulatively. The Group endorsed certain bills receivable accepted by banks in Mainland China to certain of its suppliers in order to settle the trade payables due to such suppliers (the "Endorsement"). The Endorsement has been made evenly throughout the year.

39. FAIR VALUE AND FAIR VALUE HIERARCHY OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The carrying amounts and fair values of the Group's financial instruments, other than those with carrying amounts that reasonably approximate to fair values, are as follows:

Financial liabilities

	As at 31 December 2020		As at 31 December 2019
	Carrying amount CNY' 000	Fair value CNY' 000	Carrying amount CNY' 000	Fair value CNY' 000

Total	632,500	611,096	262,500	258,533

The fair values of the non-current portion of interest-bearing loans and bank borrowings have been calculated by discounting the expected future cash flows using rates currently available for instruments with similar terms, credit risk and remaining maturities. The Group's own non-performance risks for interest-bearing bank and other borrowings as at the end of each year were assessed to be insignificant.

Fair value hierarchy

The following tables illustrate the fair value measurement hierarchy of the Group's financial instruments:

40. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES

Financial instruments of the Group primarily include cash and cash deposits, trade and bills receivables, certain other current assets, trade and bills payables, certain other liabilities, amounts due to related companies, interest-bearing bank and other borrowings and mining right payables.

The Group is exposed to credit risk, foreign currency risk, interest rate risk and liquidity risk. The Group has not used any derivatives and other instruments for hedging purposes. The Group does not hold or issue derivative financial instruments for trading purposes. The Group reviews and agrees policies for managing each of these risks and they are summarised below.

(a) Credit risk

The Group trades only with recognised and creditworthy third parties. It is the Group's policy that all customers who wish to trade on credit terms are subject to credit verification procedures. In addition, receivable balances are monitored on an ongoing basis and the Group's exposure to bad debts is not significant. For transactions that are not denominated in the functional currency of the relevant operating unit, the Group does not offer credit terms without the specific approval of the management.

Maximum exposure and year-end staging

The table below shows the credit quality and the maximum exposure to credit risk based on the Group's credit policy, which is mainly based on past due information unless other information is available without undue cost or effort, and year-end staging classification as at 31 December. The amounts presented are gross carrying amounts for financial assets.

* For trade receivables to which the Group applies the simplified approach for impairment, information based on the provision matrix is disclosed in Note 21 to the financial statements.

** The credit quality of the financial assets included in prepayments and other receivables is considered to be "normal" when they are not past due and there is no information indicating that the financial assets had a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition. Otherwise, the credit quality of the financial assets is considered to be "doubtful".

Cash and cash deposits

The Group maintains its cash and cash deposits primarily with various PRC state-owned banks and Hong Kong-based financial institutions, which management believes are of high credit quality. The Group performs periodic evaluations of the relative credit standing of those financial institutions.

40. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (continued)*(a) Credit risk (continued)Maximum exposure and year-end staging (continued)Trade receivables

The Group sells anthracite coal to companies in Mainland China. Trade receivables are typically unsecured and are mainly derived from revenue earned from customers in Mainland China. The risk with respect to trade receivables is mitigated by credit evaluations that the Group performs on its customers and its ongoing monitoring of outstanding balances. The Group provides impairment for trade receivables primarily based on the age of the balances and factors surrounding the customer's creditworthiness. A provision of CNY7.4 million for impairment of trade receivables was made during the year ended 31 December 2020 (2019: CNY0.6 million). As at 31 December 2020, receivables due from the five largest customers accounted for 4.1% (2019: 0.0%) of the trade receivables.

Sales to the five largest customers accounted for 70.2% (2019: 66.2%) of the consolidated revenue for the year ended 31 December 2020. The five largest customers are all recognised and creditworthy third parties and their trading terms are mainly on payment in advance or with a credit period of one month. The Group expects the concentration of coal customers to subside once the production volume increases in the future.

Bills receivable

Bills receivable represent letters of credit obtained by customers of the Group to finance purchases which have been presented to banks for payment after delivery of goods to customers. As at 31 December 2020, the bills receivable balance was guaranteed by financial institutions. The bills receivable normally have terms of maturity of less than one year.

(b) Foreign currency risk

These financial statements are presented in CNY, which is the Company's presentation currency. The currency is not freely convertible into foreign currencies. The State Administration of Foreign Exchange, under the authority of the People's Bank of China, controls the conversion of the currency into foreign currencies. The value of the currency is subject to changes in PRC government policies and to international economic and political developments affecting supply and demand in the China Foreign Exchange Trading System market. All foreign exchange transactions continue to take place either through the People's Bank of China or other banks authorised to buy and sell foreign currencies at the exchange rates quoted by the People's Bank of China.

40. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (continued)

(c) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Group's long-term debt obligations with floating interest rates. The interest rate risk is closely monitored by the Group's senior management. As at 31 December 2020, the interest rates for 43.0% (2019: 39.4%) of the Group's interest-bearing debts were fixed. The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates on the portion of interest-bearing bank and other borrowings and mining right payables with floating interest rates except for interest which is capitalised. With all other variables held constant, the Group's loss before tax is affected through the impact on floating rate borrowings as follows:

	Increase/ (decrease) in basis points	Increase/ (decrease) in loss before tax

(d) Liquidity risk

The Group manages its liquidity risk by regularly monitoring its liquidity requirements and its compliance with debt covenants to ensure that it maintains sufficient cash and cash equivalents, and adequate time deposits to meet its liquidity requirements in the short and long term. Bank facilities have been put in place for contingency purposes.

The table below summarises the maturity profile of the Group's financial liabilities based on contractual undiscounted payments:

(e) Capital management

The primary objectives of the Group's capital management are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern and to maintain healthy capital ratios in order to support its business and maximise shareholders' value. The Group also relies on financial support from its controlling shareholder.

The Group manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may return capital to shareholders, raise new debt or issue new shares. No changes were made in the objectives, policies or processes for managing capital during the year.

The Group monitors capital on the basis of the debt to capital ratio (gearing ratio), which is calculated as an interest-bearing debt divided by total capital. An interest-bearing debt includes interest-bearing bank and other borrowings, mining right payables and lease liabilities. Capital includes total equity and an interest-bearing debt. The gearing ratios as at the end of the reporting periods were as follows:

	2020 CNY'000	2019 CNY'000
Interest-bearing debt	2,078,516	1,976,409

SUMMARY OF MINE PROPERTIES

Notes:

- (1) The Group has closed down Gouchang Coal Mine in accordance with relevant Guizhou province's coal mine consolidation policy. The credit of the coal resource and reserve of Gouchang Coal Mine will be retained and utilised by Baiping Coal Mine in future.
- (2) Operations have been suspended at Dayuan Coal Mine since June 2014 pending the passing of verification and acceptance procedures conducted by the Nayong County Administration Bureau of Work Safety. The Group's original plan to acquire a nearby coal mine to achieve the consolidation of Dayuan Coal Mine was suspended in 2016. On 24 May 2019, Guizhou Puxin entered into an equity transfer agreement with Baoshun (an independent third party), to dispose its entire equity interest in Guizhou Dayuan. Up to 31 December 2020, the transaction was not yet completed.
- (3) On 26 January 2015, the first batch of the restructuring proposal has been approved by the Energy Bureau of Guizhou Province and the Leading Group Office of Guizhou Province on Coal Enterprises Consolidation. Under the first batch of the restructuring proposal, the Group would integrate Zhulinzhai Coal Mine and Liujiaba Coal Mine, both located in Xinhua, Liuzhi Special District, Zhina Coal District, Guizhou province, into a single coal mine under the name of Liujiaba Coal Mine. On 4 December 2020, Guizhou Puxin received an amended new mining right permit of Liujiaba Coal Mine. According to the new mining right permit, the mining area of Liujiaba Coal Mine has been adjusted to facilitate better urban and regional planning as disclosed in the Business Update Announcement of the Company dated 8 December 2020.
- (4) The reserve data as of 31 July 2013 is extracted from competent person's report dated 7 December 2013 prepared by Behre Dolbear Asia, Inc. under the JORC Code.
- (5) The reserve data as of 31 December 2020 has been substantiated by the Group's internal expert by adjusting those reserves extracted by the Group's mining activities from August 2013 to December 2020 from the proved reserve figure as of 31 July 2013. All assumptions and technical parameters set out in the competent person's report as shown in the Listing Document have not been materially changed and are continued to apply to the reserve data as of 31 December 2020 (except those of Gouchang Coal Mine and Dayuan Coal Mine).
- (6) There was no exploration activity for the Group during 2020.
